Introduction

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

It is mentioned in verse (21:107): “Wa-mā arsalnāka illā raḥmata’l-li’l-‘ālamin.”

First translation: “And We sent you not but as a mercy unto the worlds.”

Second translation: “And We sent you not but as a mercy for the people of the entire world.”

It is written in Sarā‘ir that the holy Prophet, peace be upon him and his progeny, was the qā‘īm of the cycle of Ismā‘īl, peace be upon him, that is, by the command of God, he caused the spiritual resurrection in which he was actually made the mercy for the sake of all the human souls. The resurrection of the holy Prophet is mentioned in verses (48:1; 110:1-2; 3:55). Indeed God sent His beloved Prophet as an actual mercy for the sake of the world of humanity. It has been repeatedly mentioned that ‘ālamin (sing. ‘ālam) means human beings.

The above explanation makes the idea of a spiritual resurrection absolutely clear. We also firmly believe that the Imam from the progeny of the holy Prophet, who is the vicegerent of God as well as that of the Prophet, pours luminous grace on the household of God or the world of humanity through the spiritual resurrection in his position as the Imam of humankind.
Dedication

The printing of the English translation of “The Wise Qur’ān and the World of Humanity”, Volume 2 counts among the good deeds and voluntary contributions of three fortunate brothers and their respective families. The first brother is Shams Sultan Ali Momin, ILG, whose voluntary service record goes back to when he was a Boy Scout in Karimabad Jamatkhana, Karachi, Pakistan for seven years. He also served the light committee of the same Jamatkhana for five years. He was in the Fidai emergency clinic for the community where he served for five years. His wife, Shamim was a Girl Guide for ten years in Aminabad Jamatkhana, Hyderabad, Pakistan. Their two children Hasanayn LA and Sarosh LA will inshā’ā’llāh follow their parents’ example to serve the Jamat and humanity.

The second brother is Salman Sultan Ali Momin, ILG, who has served as the Kamadia of Paanch Baar Saal Mandli in Austin. He is also a volunteer in Austin, USA Jamat. His wife, Anila, ILG is a Registered Nurse. In addition to serving as Kamadiani of Paanch Baar Saal Mandli, she has been the Co-ordinator of the Austin Health Board for two years. Their first child, Arifa is a LA.

The third brother is Nizar Sultan Ali Momin, ILG, who has been a religious education centre teacher for one year. His wife, Anis, ILG served the Houston Jamatkhana as a volunteer for four years and as a facilitator for two years. She too has taught as a religious education teacher for one year. Their first child Mah Jabeen is a LA.

The enthusiasm for and devotion to service, particularly the service of the knowledge of certainty, is the great good fortune of these three brothers and their family members. Their joint sponsorship of this book reminds us of the mubārak farmān that Mawlānā Ḥāzir Imam, Shāh Karīm al-Ḥusaynī made in Houston, USA in June 2002:

“It is important, … that as you look ahead to your lives in the United States, everyday, every hour, in your actions in what you do, you should show a different face of Islam, that you should show the face of Islam which is of peace, which is of generosity, which is of care for society. This is a message, which my Jamat in the United States can convey, by each and every one of you in your personal lives being the ambassador of our faith and our .Executive. This is an opportunity to convey a new image, to explain, to help people who are not Muslim understand the meaning of Islam. This country, unfortunately, is still far from having within its general knowledge, its general culture, a complete and thorough understanding of Islam and the Islamic world. And this causes in countries such as this - where public opinion is very important indeed - this causes misperceptions, misunderstandings. It causes tensions and this is something which all the Muslims in the United States, including the Ismaili Jamat, must take upon themselves to correct through what they do, through what they say, what they communicate.”

With all humility and deep gratitude we can say that Shams, Salman and Nizar Momin and their families have taken the above guidance to their hearts and have not only shown the generosity demanded by our faith, but they have made possible the publication of a book, the central message of which is that all human beings are the household of God and to serve His household brings one closer to Him. Such a book can but convey the correct understanding of our faith and our  Executives, which is the aspiration of the Imam of the time.
Expression of Gratitude

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

Abundant gratitude to God, may He be purified from every creaturely attribute and may His glory be exalted, that the second volume of The Wise Qur’ān and the World of Humanity, which is very dear to our students who are seeking spirituality and knowledge [of certainty], has also been completed. God willing, this book will be very useful.

O Allah! By Your infinite mercy make this book helpful and beneficial for the world of humanity! O the Lord of honour! Grant us success and courage to perform again and again, the prostration of gratitude for Your countless bounties and favours! O our Holy Lord! Yā wahhāb, yā wahhāb, yā wahhāb! (O Bestower!) Yā wadūd, yā wadūd, yā wadūd! (O our Supreme Beloved!) May the miraculous sweetness of Your blessed remembrance ever continue in our hearts! Āmin!

O ʿazīzān of Dānishgāh-i Khānah-i Ḥikmat, B.R.A. and the Institute for Spiritual Wisdom, even though my Mawlā has sacrificed me for the sake of the world of humanity, including my ʿazīzān, I would like to say: may I be sacrificed for my ʿazīzān! My ʿazīzān should read the details of this sacrifice again and again in my works. Indeed, they contain the spiritual story of every ʿazīz. [Perhaps] you are fearful for some reason or you do not strive. In future, study these books with greater responsibility and care and do the mihmānī of progress in the knowledge of certainty to Mawlānā Ḥāẓir Imam and attain his pleasure and spiritual blessing. Is my story not your story? Am I not a representative particle of the countless particles of your soul? Have we forgotten the great idea of Monoreality?

Acknowledgements

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

On the one hand we are ashamed of not being able to express adequately our gratitude for the bounties and favours of the munificent God and on the other we are ashamed at not being able to record each and every name of our benefactors. “Taqat-i mihmān na-dāsht khānah ba-mihmān guzāshi” = He, the host was unable to entertain the guest, therefore he left the house to the guest.

It is true that this book also belongs to my ‘azīzān if they believe in the concept of Monoreality, and God willing they will accept this.

It is also true according to the farmān: “Soul is one”, that we are indeed one soul. In order to understand this unique and magnificent reality, it is necessary to have more and more knowledge and recognition. According to this farmān, Mawlā has made each one of us a paradise of manifestations. Praise belongs to Allah for His kindness and favours!

The earthly angels of Markaz-i ʿilm-u ḥikmat are always in my heart and they are the soul of all these books, namely, Dr. Faquir Muhammad Hunzai, Bahruʾl-ʿulūm, Muhtarimah Rashida Noormohamed-Hunzai and Zahir Lalani.

Meaning of Ajrun ghayru mamnūn

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

This phrase means ‘unbounded recompense’. Study verses (84:25; 95:6) and also Qāmusu ‘l-Qur‘ān, p. 547. The service of knowledge is a sovereign service, therefore, God willing you will be very pleased and content tomorrow when you will be given tremendous reward for it. It is also possible that a great honour may be conferred upon you. Āmin!

I am suffering from a heart complaint, I am given medicines regularly every morning and evening and my blood pressure is checked! Despite all these diseases, I do not know how I planned to accomplish such a big task and how it was completed! There are several reasons for this:

The first is that there was the luminous ta‘yid (spiritual help) of the Imam of humankind. The second is that all my ‘azizān, including Hubb-i ʿAlī Aminuddin and Durr-i ʿAlawi Aminuddin have been constantly doing ῦṭikāf, giryah-u zārī and special prayers for my health and the completion of the book. The third is that Chairperson Yasmin Noor ʿAlī Mamji, Rahim Fatāḥ ʿAlī, Nasrin Rahim all co-operated with me in every respect and my very dear children Aminuddin Hunzai, Irfat Ruhi Aminuddin, Hubb-i ʿAlī, Durr-i ʿAlawi and Durr-i ʿFatimah took special care of my health. My very dear granddaughter, Ruhi Aminuddin, Chief Record Officer, Dānishgāh-i Khānah-i Hikmat, very skilfully and efficiently rendered the service of typing on the computer. Zahra Ja’far Sunderani also rendered this service sometimes.
Two physical angels, Zahir ā‘Ali and Sara Zahir ā‘Ali rendered unprecedented services. Together with them, Nizar Momin, Anis Nizar, Salman Momin and Anila Salman also participated wholeheartedly in the services for knowledge. Dr. Karima Jooma and Shamsuddin Jooma gave us their useful suggestions.
Part 1

The Divine Shadow

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

In verses (25:45-46), it is mentioned: “Have you not seen your Lord, how He has spread the shadow? If He willed He would certainly have made it still. Then We made the sun a guide to it. Then We seized it easily in Our hand.”

For the possessors of knowledge and wisdom it is mentioned in the verses above that the Divine shadow = the revealed Light (5:15) = the Imam of the time (may our souls be sacrificed for him). Indeed, the Imam of the time, ṣalawātu ʿlāhī ʿalayhi, who is from the progeny of the holy Prophet and Imam ʿAlī, is the Divine shadow in his luminosity. Allah is the light and His shadow is [also] light in the inner mirror = blessed forehead of the Imam of the time. The shadow of every worldly thing, except that of the sun, is dark. It is because of this that in pellucid things like a mirror its shadow is called a reflection, and not a dark shadow. Thus, the question is whether these verses mention the reflection of the light or the dark shadow? Further, dark shadows are in the lower world only, whereas these verses are related to the sacred Sanctuary, which is in the higher world.

It should be remembered well that in the sacred Sanctuary, the Imam of the time is Allah’s khalīfah or vicegerent. This means that whatever has to be done there, it is the Imam who does it by the command of God. Thus, God in the Imam’s luminosity = the sacred Sanctuary, becomes his (Imam’s) hand, by which he acts as al-qābīz (the Enfolder) and al-bāṣīt (the Unfolder). And everything, including the spiritual resurrection, takes place within these two names. Thus, Allah’s hand, the Imam of the time, unfolds all human souls from the place of azāl to this world and then during the spiritual resurrection, enfolds them back to that place. This is the meaning of enfolding and unfolding the shadow in the above-mentioned verses (25:45-46), for he is not only the Imam of the righteous, but also the Imam of all humankind.

Praise belongs to God, the Lord of the [personal] worlds!
Part 2
“Death before death” and Spiritual Resurrection

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

It is said in a noble hadith: “Die before you die”.²

Ta’wili purport: Die spiritually before you die physically, so that you may attain the treasure of recognition = the universal treasure, through spiritual resurrection. Study verses (2:54, 94, 243; 4:66; 84:9) in the wise Qur’an.

It is my happiness to invite the scholars among my ʿazizān of knowledge, each according to their status, to teach the wisdom of these noble verses to their fellow students. Nevertheless, I myself, God willing, will try to explain the wisdom of the last verse (84:9) of how our ʿārifās in the past died during this very life and returned to their people happily with every kind of success and the everlasting wealth of knowledge and recognition. For this reason, Ḥaḍrat Imam Mawlanā Sultān Muḥammad Shāh, ʿalawātu’llāhi ʿalayhi wa-salāmuhu, used to tell his murids of kār-i buzurg to die the ʿārīfānah death (i.e. death in the light of maʿrifat) again and again.
Part 3
The Human Soul and the Lord’s Providence

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

Hazrat Mawlana Sultan Muhammad Shakh, salawatu’llahi ‘alayhi, says: “The human soul is very dear to the Benevolent Lord”. God be purified from every attribute! How wonderful and great are the secrets of the recognition of the soul in the sacred farmān of the exalted Imam from the progeny of the holy Prophet and Imam ‘Ali. There is a silent universal revolution in this sublime farmān of the hujjat of the qā‘im, the bearer of the light of Imamat, the heir to the crown of walayat, the lord of the cycle of qiyāmat.

There is a treasure of spiritual knowledge in this farmān for the people of the inner eye. If someone with the inner eye or ma‘rif comprehends the all-reaching and all-embracing allusions of this treasure, he will certainly realise that the human soul was in the mīrāj of every Prophet. This is because the perfection of every perfect man is in ascending the ladder of spiritual resurrection and entering the ‘irfāni paradise where there are all the human souls together.

Allāhumma ṣallī ‘alā Muḥammadin wa-āli Muḥammad (O Allah send blessings and peace through Muḥammad and his progeny)!
Part 4
Human Personality and the Universe

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

It is mentioned in the very beginning of the surah of Fatiha (1:1): “The praise belongs to Allah, the Lord of the worlds (‘alamin)” ‘Worlds’ mean all individual human beings, because each one of them is an independent universe, and the providence of the Lord is specific to these personal worlds. The surah of Fatiha is the mother of the Book therefore it is the essence of the Qur’an. To consider a human being an independent world in the very beginning of the Qur’an and to mention the special arrangement for his spiritual and intellectual upbringing is a greatly amazing and wisdom-filled declaration of the fact that “the human soul is very dear to the Benevolent Lord”.

The word ‘alamin is mentioned in the wise Qur’an 73 times. The word rabb is mentioned 82 times and the word Allah approximately a thousand times. There is no name of God and no verse in the wise Qur’an in which human beings are not mentioned. Human welfare can be expressed in many ways, but the sense in which the human soul is dear to the Benevolent Lord is [implied] in the meaning of rabb and rububiyyat, i.e. the Lord and His providence. A mother loves her suckling child very much. This love is natural, heavenly and divine. That is, it comes down from the treasure of the attribute of providence of the Benevolent Lord.

It is said in verse (11:90): “Verily my Lord is merciful, loving.” It is also mentioned in verses (7:151; 12:64, 92; 21:83): “Allah is the most merciful of the merciful ones.”
It is mentioned in verse (15:21): “And there is not a thing but its treasures are with Us, and We do not send it down but according to a known measure.”

These treasures of God are His eternal names. It is generally considered that these names are 99. However, Qâzî Sulaymân Maḥṣûr-pûrî has given a list of 158 names. According to some they are 300 and according to some others 1,000. Some ‘ulamâ’ and companions of the Prophet consider that there are as many names of God as there are Prophets, because every Prophet was given a name through which he used to seek help from the Divine court.\(^5\)

This means that there are 124,000 names of Allah, according to the law that every Prophet was the supreme Name for the mu’tîms of his time. Similarly, every Imaam is the supreme Name for the people of his time. Thus, at present the Imam of the time is certainly working for us as the supreme Name. Al-ḥamdu li’llâh! Had it not been so, nobody would have been able to find the path of the one God in the multiplicity of God’s names.

Thus, the Imam of the time, who is Allah’s khalîfah and His luminous supreme Name in his position as the mażhar of Divine attributes, is extremely kind to all human beings.

The attributive name rabb is frequently used in the Qur’ān. It means the one who constantly nourishes, the best nourisher, the one who elevates and causes to reach perfection, the one who nourishes all creatures and guards their nourishment.\(^6\)
Part 6
Prostration of Angels to Adam and his Children

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

It is mentioned in verse (7:11): “And verily We created you, then We formed you, then We said to the angels: Prostrate yourselves to Adam. They all prostrated themselves except Iblis; he was not of those who prostrate themselves”.

Ta’wili purport: And indeed We created you physically, then We caused you to reach the paradise of the sacred Sanctuary by attaching you to the spiritual resurrection of the Single Soul = Adam or Adam’s heir, where you were created according to the ñurat-i Rahmân, i.e. the image of the Compassionate and the angels prostrated themselves to you with Adam.

In the above-mentioned verse “We created you” implies the complete physical creation, from “then” starts the spiritual creation, and in “We formed you” is mentioned the raising up to the sacred Sanctuary and creating according to the ñurat-i Rahmân. Finally, the prostration of the angels to Adam and his children is mentioned. Read also Part 84 of “The Wise Qur’ân and the World of Humanity Volume 1”. This event took place consciously for Adam, whereas for his children it took place unconsciously. However, what is established on the basis of Qur’anic evidence is [absolutely] reliable.

“O Allah! Make a light for me in my heart, and a light in my ear and a light in my eye and a light in my tongue”.7
Part 7
Covenant of “Am I not?”

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

The children of Adam, namely the Perfect Men were not in a particular time, rather their chain always continues in this world. Thus the extremely great miracle of “Am I not?” continues to take place in every age, according to the “Renewal of Similitudes”. And it is a fact that God always and continuously creates personal worlds. Thus, it is evident that the covenant of “Am I not?” is renewed in the personal world of every Perfect Man.

Question: In verse (7:172) the children of Adam are mentioned but not Adam himself. What is the secret in this? Is Adam exempt from this rule or is there any other wisdom hidden in not mentioning his name?

Answer: In the verse under discussion, the Adam of the cycle is also mentioned, because with respect to the previous cycle, he is a son of Adam and with respect to the present he is Adam and the father of human beings.
Part 8
The World of Creation and the World of Command

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

It is mentioned in verse (7:54): “Alâ lahu’l-khalqu wa’l-amru. Tabâraka’llâhu rabbu’il-âlamin”.

Translation 1: Beware, His is the creation and the command. Blessed be Allah, the Lord of the [personal] worlds.

Translation 2: Beware, the world of creation and the world of command belong to Him. Allah is the Lord of the personal worlds and the Master of beginningless and endless blessings.

The world of creation is the physical world, which is under space and time. The world of command is the spiritual world, which is the non-spatial and higher world. In the world of command things happen, not as a result of causes but because of Divine will. The example of Divine will is the word “Be”, which you will find in the wise Qur’ân and in the works of the dignitaries of religion. Since the holy Qur’ân is in the Arabic language, the word “Be” in Arabic is [kun], and by which is meant the Divine will. Imam Sulṭân Muḥammad Shâh has explained it in the concept of creation. God makes within a personal world, which by His grace is a universal paradise, seventy thousand angels and each of them is a luminous universe.

Mu’jiz e hi mu’jiz e Qur’ân-i natiq se suno!
Âj mawlâ-yi zamânah rûz-i maḥshar hē kitâb.
Listen to the speaking Qur’ân, he speaks of miracles only. Today he is the lord of the time, on the day of resurrection he is the Book [of deeds].
All People are in Every Individual (potentially)

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

It is mentioned in verse (5:32):”For this reason We prescribed for the children of Israel that he who slays a human being for other than murder or for spreading corruption in the land, it shall be as though he has slain all humankind; and he who saves a human life, it shall be as though he has saved the entire humankind.” This Qur’anic law reflects the fact that all people are potentially in every individual, for whom it is possible to be an actual reality in the future. That is, by the command of God, every individual can be a complete universe, in which all people can exist.

When the light of the Imam of the time (may our souls be sacrificed for him) rises in the personal world of a sālik, the spiritual resurrection takes place, due to which all the people become spiritually present.

There are endless favours of the Imam of the time upon Allah’s household in the spiritual resurrection. Indeed, he is the Imam of the righteous as well as the Imam of humankind. It is necessary to mention it time and again that all people go to paradise by means of the spiritual resurrection. To go to paradise is indeed salvation, nonetheless there are ranks in salvation too.

Allâhumma ṣalli ‘alâ Muḥammadin wa-āli Muḥammad.
Part 10
The Law of Enfolding (qānūn-i lafīf)

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

It is mentioned in verse (17:104): “And after this We said to the children of Israel: Dwell peacefully in the land, but when the promise of the hereafter (spiritual resurrection) comes, We shall bring you all enfolded [in one].” This means that the spiritual resurrection of the people of the entire world takes place in the Single Soul and they all unconsciously become merged in it and go to God. This is God’s great favour to human beings. In short, the law of enfolding is the law of the spiritual resurrection. All the different examples, which are in the wise Qur’ān, are related to it. That is, all the stories and parables of the wise Qur’ān contain the ta’wil of the spiritual resurrection. It is thus necessary to mention it again and again, because people have forgotten it, whereas it has countless benefits for them. The following Burushaski verse is relevant here:

\begin{align*}
Zūn lā qiyyāmat manā zihrē dishar gātī manīen \\
Zākirī illumalū lo burghuwē ghar but uyam^{10} \end{align*}

O people, the resurrection has taken place come to the assembly of dhikr!

The inspiring melody of the ṣūr of Isrāfīl in the dhākir’s (i.e. ārif’s) ear is extremely sweet.

God willing! When you and the rest of the people will go to paradise you will experience miracles only.
Part 11

The Sūrah of Rahmān and Human Beings

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

The external and internal favours of God, may He be exalted, are beautifully mentioned throughout the wise Qur’ān and the same are also mentioned in one place in the sūrah of Rahmān. There can be numerous wisdoms in this.

Another name of the sūrah of Rahmān is ‘urūsu’l-Qur’ān (Bride of the Qur’ān). This sūrah has been the paragon of perfection in its spiritual beauty and elegance. If viewed with the inner eye, one can have complete certainty that God has always kept the world of humanity in paradise. If jinn are also mentioned here, they are the subtle bodies of human beings. It is necessary here to reflect on the fact that if the jinn were not as beautiful as the houris and the youths [of paradise], they would not have been mentioned in the Bride of the Qur’ān. It logically follows that this wisdom-filled sūrah mentions the extraordinary and beautiful favours that God has [specially] granted humankind. Although at present the jinn or subtle body is separate, when the time comes it becomes the elegant and subtle attire of humankind. Wherever jinn are mentioned, angels are also [automatically] mentioned, because the righteous jinn are angels.

It is evident from the sūrah of Rahmān that all the special and magnificent bounties of God are for the world of humanity, because human beings are His household.

Praise belongs to Allah, the Lord of the personal worlds!
Part 12
The Sūrah of Rahmān and Human Beings

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

It is mentioned in verses (55:1-5): “The Rahmān taught the Qur’an. He created humankind, He taught him explanation. The sun and the moon follow a reckoning.”

Ta’wili purport:
Ar-rahmānu ‘allama’l-Qur’ān: Rahmān taught His Prophet, the nāfīq, the Qurʾān in the luminosity of the supreme Name. (Similarly, He taught the asās and the Imam).

Khalaqa’l-insān: He created the Perfect Man in the progressive ranks of the spiritual resurrection.

‘Allamahu’l-bayān: He taught him the science of bayān, i.e. ta’wil.

This is followed by the mention of the system of the circulation of the sun and the moon, which is in the three worlds: The external or physical world, the world of religion and the world of oneness. The world of oneness is the sacred Sanctuary in the personal world, where due to the spiritual resurrection, light upon light and oneness, the light of the sun, the moon and the stars is the same one light. The ta’wili wisdom of this is that in the Qurʾān there are five lights or five manifestations of the same one light, but in the sacred Sanctuary there is only one light. It has therefore been said that fanāʾ fi’l-Qurʾān is also a special technical term. This is in the sense that fanāʾ fi’l-Imām is itself fanāʾ fi’l-Qurʾān, as spiritually the Qurʾān is with the Imam and the Imam with the Qurʾān.

Praise belongs to Allah for His favours and munificence!
Part 13
The Sūrah of Raḥmān and Human Beings
In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

The sūrah of Raḥmān has 78 verses, 3 rukūs and 31 Divine treasures. That is, there are 31 parts of the great bounties of God mentioned in this wisdom-filled and magnificent sūrah. After the mention of the bounties of each treasure, the jinn and humankind are asked: Which of the bounties of your Lord will both of you belie? The question is posed in an emphatic imperative [form] in order to [make people] recognise the inner bounties of God, because not to recognise a bounty is tantamount to belying it.

Human creation started from tinkling clay (ṣālṣāl). The taʼwil of this is that the spiritual creation and the spiritual resurrection of a human being start simultaneously. The sign of this is the ringing of the ear, which is the same ‘tinkling clay’, and the gnat (baţūzah) mentioned in the Qurʾān.

Jinn are created from the flame of a fire. The taʼwil of this is that the subtle creature is created from the cold fire. The cold fire is mentioned in verse (21:69) and it is also among Ḥaẓrat-i Mawlā’s miracles.

Question: What bounty is there for humankind in the fact that jinn are created from the cold fire?
Answer: The jinn that are also angels are the luminous bodies of humankind, by wearing which humankind will fly, not only within the enclosure of paradise, but also outside it. Jinn have their own ‘I’ and are also the attires of righteous people. This bounty is extremely amazing for them.
Part 14
The Sūrah of Rahmān and Human Beings

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

Question: Which are the five lights in the wise Qur’ān that you have mentioned in Part 12?
Answer: They are the light of Allah (24:35), the light of the Prophet (33:46), the light of the Qur‘ān (42:52), the light of the Imam (57:28) and the light of the male and female mu’mins (57:12). The great secret that the Imam of the time is the khalīfah of Allah, the khalīfah of His Prophet, the khalīfah of the Book of Allah, i.e. the speaking Book with God (23:62; 45:29) and also the khalīfah of the Qur‘ān, should be borne in mind and remembered carefully. Thus, the Imam of the time is the light of Allah as His representative, he is the light of the Prophet in his position as his successor, he is the light of the Qur‘ān in the sense of ta’wil or ma’rifat and he is the light of the male and female mu’mins in the sense of being their guide.

Question: What are the two ‘easts’ and two ‘wests’ mentioned in this sūrah?
Answer: They are the Universal Intellect, the Universal Soul, nāṭiq and asāṣ. These are the two ‘easts’ and the two ‘wests’ of the light of tawḥīd.

Question: What is the ta’wil of the parable of maraja’l-bahrayn (He let loose the two rivers)?
Answer: When the light of the Imam of the time rises in the personal world of a sālik, the spiritual resurrection takes place, in which the two rivers of the act of Isrā’ and the act of ʿĪsra’īl flow. Human beings receive countless pearls and corals from these two rivers. They have been repeatedly mentioned. Read Parts 67 to 70 of this book carefully!
The travellers of the personal world are called sālikān (sing. sālik). If Divine providence is granted, they advance and become ‘ārifān (sing. ‘ārif). In due time, every ‘ārif sees the miracle of the manifestation of the throne on water and then the throne turns into the ark of salvation. In the ark the Imam of the time becomes its lord and in ta’wīl sense he becomes the laden ark (36:41), so that all people may merge in him. This is because of the fact that on the one hand he is Allah’s khalīfah and on the other, the Imam of humankind. Since Allah is the most merciful of the merciful ones, therefore in order to elevate them to the rank of fanā‘ fi’llāh, He has provided this means, otherwise on their own they cannot ascend the throne and merge in the lord of the throne.

It is said in verses (55:26-27): “All those who are in the ark are perishing, but the glorious and gracious Face of Allah (Allah’s khalīfah, the Imam of the time) remains forever.”

Question: In what sense is the Imam of the time Allah’s Face?

Answer: [The Imam is Allah’s Face] in the sense that His recognition is attainable only through the recognition of the Imam.

Part 16
The Sūrah of Rahmān and Human Beings

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

It is said in verse (55:29): “All those who are in the heavens and the earth ask Him. Every day He is in a (new) splendour.”

Ta’wīlī purport: All those who are in the heavens and in the earth ask Him. Every day, i.e. in minor and major cycles, for instance in the cycles of Adam, Noah, Abraham, Moses, Jesus, Muhammad, and qā’īm (may peace be upon them all) with respect to His mazhar He has a new splendour while in His eternal essence and attributes, He is in the same state; and in it there are great bounties for human beings, as a sacred hadith says: “O the child of Adam! Obey Me, I will make you like Myself”.11

In another hadith it is said: “O the son of Adam! I have created you for eternity. I am ever living and I do not die. Obey Me in what I have commanded you and refrain from what I have forbidden you. I will make you ever living and you will never die. O son of Adam! I am all-powerful that if I say to a thing “Be”, it becomes; obey Me in what I have commanded you and refrain from what I have forbidden you so that I may make you all-powerful that if you say to a thing “Be”, it becomes”.12

The Sūrah of Rahmān and Human Beings

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

It is said in verse (55:33): “O the assembly of jinn and humankind! If you can penetrate the horizons of the heavens and the earth, do so, but you cannot except by the sultan.”

Ta’wili purport: O the assembly of jinn and humankind! Do you think that the journey from space to spacelessness is easy? Try to experiment, but you will not be able to do so without the sultan. Sultan means the hujjat of qā’im, spiritual resurrection, the supreme Name, overpowering, the heavenly proof.

In short, the sūrah of Rahmān contains forty less nine (31) treasures, in which there are great and everlasting bounties and there is nothing in them other than bounties. Even if hell is mentioned here (55:43-44), it is also the source of real bounties, which some people out of ignorance consider to be hell [in a negative sense].

As Mawlānā Rūmī says about his perfect murshid:

> Masjid-i man kuniṣht-i man düzakh-i man bihisht-i man
> Rāst bigiyam in sukhan Shams-i man-u Khudā-yi man

My masjid, my temple, my hell, my paradise
I say rightly that all this is my Shams and my God
Part 18

The Sūrah of Rahmān and Human Beings

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

It is mentioned in verse (31:20): “Did you not see [with the inner eye] that Allah has subjugated to you whatsoever is in the heavens and whatsoever is in the earth, and has completed His favours both apparent and hidden”. This verse directly confirms all the bounties in the sūrah of Rahmān.

All the exhortations of the wise Qur‘ān are in the veil of ta‘wīl wisdom. For our last cycle there is a bright and guiding farmān of Allah and His Prophet, which is “People are Allah’s household”. Therefore, for the sake of wishing Allah’s household well, we would like to reflect upon the secrets of the Qur‘ān so that our well-wishing may be according to Allah’s pleasure. Āmin!
Part 19
The  Sūrah of Rahmān and Human Beings

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

At the end of this blessed  sūrah of Rahmān, there is an allusion to the holy supreme Name of the glorious and gracious lord (i.e. the Imam of the time), because the recognition of the great secrets of the  sūrah of Rahmān is possible only through  ḥanā'  fi’l-Imām and the spiritual resurrection. The  Imām-i mubīn is the living supreme Name of Allah, whose enclosure of luminosity is called the sacred Sanctuary where the secrets of recognition appear in the form of numerous kinds of manifestations.

By God! The Imam of the time is that living Name of God, which is mentioned in numerous places of the Qur’ān. It is the Imam who is appointed by God to make all human beings embark in the ark of salvation through the spiritual resurrection. The spiritual particles of the human beings of the entire world are in the laden ark mentioned in verse (36:41).

It is reported from Ḥādrat Ibn ʿAbbās that he said ʿalāmin mean only angels, jinn and human beings. It is reported from Imam Jaʿfar bin Muḥammad that he said ʿalāmin mean human beings only, of whom each individual is an independent world.¹⁵ This reference is extremely important.
Part 20
The Sūrah of Rahmān and Human Beings

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

There is in the sūrah of Rahmān a guarantee of the endless bounties of God for the world of humanity, which He has declared in such verses as (2:243; 10:62): “Verily, Allah is gracious to the people, but most people are not grateful.”

Reflect also upon the tremendous wisdom in verse (3:83): “When to Him submits whatsoever is in the heavens and in the earth, willingly or unwillingly.”

Also it is mentioned in verse (13:15): “And it is Allah to Whom prostrate all those who are in the heavens and the earth, willingly or unwillingly.”
Part 21
The Children of Adam

_In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful_

It is said in a _hadith_: “Allah created Adam in His Image”. There is also another _hadith_: “Whoever enters paradise will be in the image of Adam”.

Question: When and where did God create Adam in His Compassionate Image (Raḥmān _ṣūrat_)?

Answer: When he entered the sacred Sanctuary or paradise. Two images of Adam are conceived here: One is the image that he had prior to entering the sacred Sanctuary and _fanā’ fi’llāh_ and the other is the one granted to him after entering the sacred Sanctuary, i.e. the _ṣūrat-i Raḥmān_.

Question: If whoever enters paradise does so in the image of Adam or _ṣūrat-i ʿĀdam_, the question is: Is it the human image (_basharī _ṣūrat_) or the Compassionate Image (Raḥmān _ṣūrat_)? If it is the latter, what is its Qur’ānic proof?

Answer: Whoever enters paradise will be in the _ṣūrat-i Raḥmān_ and the Qur’ānic proof is verse (7:11): “And We created you (physically, spiritually and intellectually in the oneness of the Single Soul, Adam), then We made your form (i.e. the _ṣūrat-i Raḥmān_ in the sacred Sanctuary) then We said to the angels: Prostrate yourselves to Adam”. The angels prostrated to Adam at two places: the first prostration was at the beginning of the stage of Isrā’īl, and the second was in the sacred Sanctuary. In both places, you were among the angels as well as in Adam. Another Qur’ānic evidence is verse (31:28): “Your creation and resurrection is but like a Single Soul.”
Part 22

The Children of Adam

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

It is said in verse (17:70): “And We have indeed honoured the children of Adam and We carry them in the land and the sea, and We provide them with good things, and We have duly exalted them over most of those whom We have created”.

All the allusions of the greatness and excellence of the children of Adam that we have already mentioned are in the above noble and comprehensive verse. That is, becoming angels with angels and prostrating to Allah’s khalifah, Adam, and becoming the face and looking into the mirror and vice versa. In other words, the children of Adam had become angels as well as Adam. When all the souls entered the ark of salvation, this was the light of the Imam of the time and the greatest miracle of the manifestation of the throne on water. When all the children of Adam were aboard the ark, an archangel was reciting al-akram, al-akram, al-akram. Numerous wisdoms are hidden in this, including the wisdom of the honour of the children of Adam. It is due to this wisdom that now the hidden secret of their honour is manifesting.
Part 23
The Children of Adam

_In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful_

It is mentioned in verse (7:31): “O children of Adam! Take your adornment at every place of worship (masjid), and eat and drink.” Prior to the explanation of the _ta’wâl_ wisdom of this, it is important to mention that the exalted _farmân_ “The people are Allah’s household” is about the children of Adam.

The creation of the children of Adam, according to what the Qur’âan says in verse (39:6): “He created you from a Single Soul. Then from it created its pair”, may certainly surprise you. The _ta’wil_ of it is that the souls of the children of Adam were created instantly from the Divine spirit that was breathed into him. In this world the children of Adam are in different ranks. Whether it is this [physical] world or the [world of] religion, people work together and co-operate with one another. The Divine spirit that was breathed into Adam means the Divine light. Thus the spark of the light of Adam of the time can be hidden in all his children or [members of] Allah’s household. It must be remembered that by the command of God, there is an heir of Adam, a _khalîfah_ of Allah in every age, who is called the Imam of the time.

In verse (7:31) mentioned above, those who practise the luminous _‘ibâdat_ are commanded to illumine their heart (_bâtin_) during every such _‘ibâdat_ and to eat and drink from the bounties of knowledge and wisdom.

_İs jahân mēn jab-ki Qur’an kanz-i Rahmān ā gayā_
_RahmatÜōwr barkatÜōkā ayz tufân ā gayā_
Ever since the Qur’an was revealed in this world as the Divine treasure
It unleashed a torrent of mercies and blessings.
Part 24
The Children of Adam

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

It is mentioned in verse (49:13): “O people! Verily We have created you from a male and a female (Adam and Eve), and made you nations and tribes, so that you may recognise each other. Verily, the most honoured of you with Allah is the most righteous of you. Verily Allah is all-knowing, all-aware.”

The above universal and comprehensive blessed verse states clearly the Qur’anic reality that Allah considers all people the children of Adam or His household, who are equal in the beginning and in the end, as it is said in verse (67:3): “You will never see a difference in the creation of Raḥmān”. Here I am reminded of a verse in Burushaski:

Uyum dishan yeɑ bâ ele sis uy Uint babar bân
Azalê babar ham juvan abadê babar but uyam¹⁹
I have seen a sublime place where all people are equal,
How sweet! They will be equal in abad as they were in azal.
Part 25
The Angel of Death

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

It is said in verse (32:11): “Say: the angel of death appointed over you will cause you to die, then you shall be brought to your Lord.”

Death is both partial and complete. Partial in the sense that one dies everyday [in the form of sleep] and complete in the sense that once during a lifetime one has to die; it is voluntary as well as involuntary. Therefore, the angel of death is appointed over every individual. This means that in every personal world there are countless powers, of which four are the most powerful and revolutionary. They are: Jibril power, Mikā’ili power, Isrāfīlī power and ‘Izrā’īlī power.

Ḥaẓrat Imam Ja’fār as-Ṣādiq said: “Were the devils not hovering around the hearts of the children of Adam, they would have seen the kingdom of the heavens and the earth.”

This farmān of the Imam shows that sincere servants of God can see the spiritual kingdom of the universe and this great miracle happens in the personal world.
Part 26
The Single Soul

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

The Single Soul represents the rank of Adam and its renewal in the wise Qur’ân. It also contains the secret of spiritual resurrection and the renewal of the creation of souls. You must remember the key wisdom that Allah, may He be exalted, always creates.

I have been receiving the charity of knowledge from Ḥaẓrat Imam Mawlānā Sultān Muḥammad Shāh, the ḥujjat of qā’im, peace be upon them both, and Nūr Mawlānā Shāh Karim u’l-Husaynī Ḥāżir Imam (may my soul be sacrificed for him). Their luminous miracles have continued to take place. I have mentioned these miracles to some extent [in my writings and lectures] as a testimony and a trust. As an act of good intention I have termed these miracles ‘spiritual science’. What I have written on the subject of the world of humanity is in the light of the bright evidences of the Qur’ān and the hadīth.

Lā ḥawla wa-lā quwwata illā bi’l lāḥi’l-a’liyyi’l-azīm.21 (There is no power and strength except by Allah, the high, the great).
Part 27
The Souls (al-\textit{arwāh})

\textit{In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful}

It is mentioned in verse (17:85): “And they ask you about the spirit. Say: The spirit is from the command of my Lord (i.e. it belongs to the world of command and the Word ‘Be’), and you have been given of knowledge but a little.”

Those who asked this question wanted to test the holy Prophet. It is mentioned in a \textit{hadith}: “The souls were/are/will be [in the form of] assembled armies”.\textsuperscript{22} This \textit{hadith} is a bright exegesis of verse (48:4): “Allah’s are the armies of the heavens and the earth.” Where there is the war of resurrection and true \textit{da'wat} (\textit{da'wat-i āqq}) in spirituality, there are also the armies of souls and their chief.\textsuperscript{23}

The Imam of the cycle of \textit{qiyāmat} or the cycle of \textit{ta'wil} has said: “There is only one soul”.\textsuperscript{24} That is, there is only one soul of all human beings. How wisdom-filled and magnificent is this \textit{ta'wil} of the exalted Imam.
Part 28

Spiritual Resurrection

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

Haẓrat Ḥakīm Pir Naṣir-i Khusraw says:

Munazzah māliku ‘l-mulk ki bi-pāyān ḥashr dārad

He is the first, He is the last, He is the manifest, He is the hidden
He is the pure sovereign of a kingdom that has countless resurrections

Spiritual resurrection is the Divine sunnat (law), which continues without any alteration.

Each one of the one hundred and twenty-four thousand Prophets had received ism-i aẓam or the supreme Name from the Imām-i mubin and each one had attained mīrāj by climbing the ladder of spiritual resurrection and with each of them all human souls had also attained mīrāj. Thus, each Prophet was a heavenly ladder for the world of humanity and in this sense, one of the names of Allah is Dhi’l-ma‘ārij (the Lord of ladders, 70:3). That is, He is the Lord of living ladders, so that all human beings may be elevated to the presence of God, as mentioned in verse (40:15): “The exalter of ranks, the Lord of the throne.” The truly amazing wisdom in this is that Allah exalts human ranks up to the throne. Subhāna ‘llāh! Subhāna ‘llāh! Allah is free from all attributes! Allah is free from all attributes!
Part 29
Miracles of Subjugation

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

The subjugation of the universe or parts of it is mentioned in numerous verses of the mighty Qur’ān. If they have an esoteric and ta’wīl aspect as well, in what stage of the journey of the personal world do subjugatory (taskhīrī) miracles take place for the sāliks and ārifs?

Answer: The above question is extremely great and difficult and my knowledge is very limited. Let us supplicate to Mawlā for his spiritual help. The complete story of the spiritual journey is not only very long, but also extremely delicate and difficult. We therefore only allude to those great Isrā’īlī and ʿĪzrāʿīlī miracles, which take place in the beginning of the hidden spiritual resurrection. All the miracles of these two archangels are subjugatory. One ta’wīl of all those verses related to subjugation becomes complete in this stage. If you become merged in the ḥujjat of qāʿīm, and the qāʿīm, then the ultimate purpose of the subjugation of the universe can be achieved. However, the ultimate subjugation of everything takes place in the sacred Sanctuary when you enter it.

Study my other books carefully, particularly “Wonders and Marvels of Spiritual Science”, and the verses of subjugation, especially 31:20 for more details of this answer. Prior to Isrā’īlī and ʿĪzrāʿīlī miracles there are the miracles of the world of dreams and the world of imagination. The greatest subjugatory miracles of haqquʾl-yāqīn take place only in the sacred Sanctuary, because it is the sublime paradise.
Subhāna’l-lāh, wa’l-hamdu lī’lāh, wa-lā ilāha illa’lāh, wa’l-lāhu akbar;27 wa lā hawla wa-lā quwwata illa bi’l-lāhi’l-ʿalīyyi’l-ʿazīm.28 (God is free from all attributes, Praise belongs to Allah, there is no God except Allah, Allah is great and there is no power and strength except by Allah, the high, the great).
It is mentioned in verse (10:3): “Verily, your Lord is Allah Who created the heavens and the earth [of the world of religion] in six days (i.e. cycles), then He established His equality (i.e. equality of Rahmān) on the throne (i.e. in the sacred Sanctuary, the light of qā‘im). He repeats His command of ‘Be’ (kun) whenever He wills.”

The one hundred and twenty four thousand bright proofs are more than enough for the reality of musāwāt-i Rahmānī. That is, all human souls were together with every Prophet during his spiritual resurrection and mī‘rāj. This is because all human beings, the earlier ones, the present ones and the later ones become spiritually present in the spiritual resurrection of every Perfect Man, without which there is neither the spiritual resurrection nor mī‘rāj.

In short, there are ranks (darajāt) as well as equality (musāwāt) for people in God’s kingdom. It depends on the knowledge and recognition of people to understand where there are ranks and where there is equality.

There is no soul beyond the law of this hadith: “The souls were/are/will be [in the form of] assembled armies.” Thus, Allah granted the title of ‘iyyālu’llāh or Allah’s household to human beings, so that we may wish them well and serve them. God willing!
Part 31

The Excellence of the World of Humanity

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

The first and foremost excellence of the world of humanity is that God has selected all His Prophets from among human beings, so that the children of Adam may benefit from heavenly guidance and attain the bliss of both the world of religion and the physical world. In this great work of the Benevolent Lord there is endless mercy for human souls, as we have already mentioned that Allah has created every human being as an independent world. Allah considers all human beings as independent worlds as mentioned in the very beginning of the holy Qur'ān. Thus, whoever studies the sūrah of Fātihah should understand that the praise of Allah is in the sense that He is the Lord or Sustainer of each and every human world. In this lies a great wisdom that since Allah praises Himself by virtue of being the Sustainer of the world of humanity, it is a sure guarantee that sooner or later, He is going to make every human world firdaws-i barān or the sublime paradise. Āmin!

The houris and youths whose unique and exquisite beauty is mentioned in the wise Qur'ān itself are all from the world of humanity. The angelic world, which is the world of angels and souls, is also from the world of humanity and the extremely beautiful and subtle men and women of parās (jinn), who are in the spiritual mount Qāf, are also from among human beings. In this connection, the most fundamental and significant wisdom is what Mawlānā ʿAlī, peace be upon him, says:

Wa-tahsabu annaka jirmun ṣaghirun
Wa-fikaʾnṭawaʾ l-ʿālamuʾ l-akbaru
And you think that you are a small body,
While the great universe is contained within you?
Part 32

Imam of Humankind (İmâmû’n-nâs)

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

It is mentioned in verse (2:124) that God appointed Hazrat Abraham as the Imam for all human beings. The central words are: “İnni jâ’iluka li’n-nâsi imâmâ (Verily, I appoint you an Imam for humankind)”. The sages of religion, kâmilî and āırifî say that the Divine sunnat has continued from eternity. According to this sunnat God has appointed an Imam for the people of every age. The Imam is present with every Prophet and is also there after the last Prophet, because in every time the Imam is Allah’s khalifah and His living, supreme Name. It is through the Imam that the spiritual resurrection takes place, in which there are countless benefits for all human beings, as is said in verse (17:71): “The day We will invite people through their Imam.” Allah’s khalifah is both İmâmû’n-nâs (the Imam of humankind) and the İmâmû’l-muttaqîn (the Imam of the righteous).

Hazrat Abraham, by God’s command had resolved to sacrifice his beloved son. Allah by His infinite mercy, not only accepted this sacrifice, but also ransomed him with a great sacrifice (37:107).

Here the question arises: What was the main and supreme purpose of this unprecedented sacrifice?

Answer: Its supreme purpose was to deliver all human souls through the spiritual resurrection.
Second question: What does the great sacrifice (37:107) mean?

Answer: It means to act according to the Prophetic farmān “Die before you die”, because by doing so the spiritual resurrection takes place, in which there is salvation for all human souls.
Part 33
Imam of Humankind (Imāmu ‘n-nās)

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

In Volume 1 of this book, it is mentioned with reference to verse (5:32): “And he who saves a human life, it shall be as though he has saved the entire humankind.” The question is: How can one individual revive another? The main answer and secret lies in “Die before you die”. Thus, if you act according to this farmān, not only your own dead soul, but all of Allah’s household will be revived by the blessings of the spiritual resurrection, which you have borne in all its stages. This is the law of God according to which by reviving one single soul all souls of all the people of the universe are revived.

Another example is as though you sell your soul to God and He, the Benevolent and Merciful Lord, in His infinite mercy gives you the souls of the entire universe in return. To strike a bargain with God out of love has endless benefits. Everybody knows that Allah transcends all needs, nonetheless He is very kind and benevolent to the people.

If I am a true lover of the Imam, I should sacrifice [everything] for the world of humanity by acting according to “Die before you die”, because my Mawlā and master is the Imam of humankind and he wills that the ransom of the great sacrifice for the salvation of all people be given. God willing! If our intention is good and we have the luminous guidance, this great bliss is not impossible. Āmin!
Part 34
Imam of Humankind (Imāmu ’n-nās)

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

It is mentioned in verse (6:122): “Is he who was dead and We have raised him unto life, and appointed for him a light with which he walks among human beings, as him whose similitude is in utter darkness whence he cannot emerge?”

Ta’wili wisdom: Indeed in the beginning every sālik can be described as the living-like dead. That is, the soul, which he is going to attain later on, does not [currently] exist in him. When a fortunate sālik in the light of the guidance of the Imāmu ’n-nās, Allah’s khalīfah, acts according to the blessed farmān of “Die before you die”, the light of the Imam of the time rises [in his personal world] and his resurrection takes place. Thus, Allah revives him through His khalīfah and makes him the ransom for the salvation of the world of humanity by granting him the rank of the great sacrifice (37:137). If a ram can be the ransom for Ḥaḍrat Ismā‘īl, why should a sālik not be the ransom for Allah’s household? Thus, the Imāmu ’n-nās causes the spiritual resurrection to take place in a sālik in whose personal world the souls of the heavens and the earth are gathered, while other than him, nobody is aware of it, nor can they hear the universal voice of the sūr-i Isrā‘īl. The wise Qur’ān describes the unconsciousness of the people and their insensitivity to the tumultuous commotion of the spiritual resurrection as fainting or stupefaction (39:68), in which there is a great wisdom of God.
Part 35
Imam of Humankind (Imāmu’‑n‑nās)

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

It is mentioned in the wisdom-filled verse (7:11): “And verily We created you, then formed you, then We said to the angels: Prostrate yourselves to Adam.”

The above blessed and wisdom-filled address of Allah is to the people of every age, because His khalīfah or Imāmu’‑n‑nās is present in every age. The spiritual resurrection is renewed through him and all people spiritually enter the sacred Sanctuary together with the Single Soul and are transformed into the image of their father Adam, i.e. the sūrat‑i Ṣahmān. This is mentioned in “We formed you”. At this stage all human souls are Adam, the masjūd‑i malā’ik (the one to whom the angels prostrated) as well as the angels themselves; fanā’ fi’il‑imām as well as fanā’ fi’illah. Indeed, the knowledge of certainty of [the oneness of] the ārifānī paradise of the sacred Sanctuary may indeed amaze you. Yes! The sacred Sanctuary, which is the ārifānī paradise, is also the world of oneness, therefore all bounties there are found together.

By the spiritual help of Imāmu’‑n‑nās, this opportunity of serving the wise Qur’ān and the world of humanity is not less than the sublime paradise full of bounties. However, it is true that we cannot duly thank Him. We lack in this service.
Part 36
The People are Allah’s Household

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

Verse (14:34) contains a truly amazing treasure full of mercies, blessings and wisdoms for the lovers of the revealed light: “And He gave you of all you asked of Him, and if you would count the bounty of Allah you cannot reckon it.”

Question: It is obvious that Allah addresses all people in the above. This verse clearly states that people asked their Lord for every bounty. Therefore, it is useful for a wise person to query when, where and on what occasion was this asked for, whereas it appears that almost all of them are unaware of His bounties?

Answer: Certainly people can be negligent of His bounties, but the Imāmu’n-nās never neglects to benefit them spiritually. It is written in Wajh-i Din: “Whether human beings are asleep or awake, their noses continue to breathe and keep them alive”. The meaning of this example is that whether people are aware of the truth or not, the Imam is constantly and continuously doing his work to benefit the people and keep them alive. Through the spiritual resurrection, the Imam makes Allah’s household reach the sacred Sanctuary spiritually. They ask for these bounties in their circumstantial language (i.e. mutely). Also Allah has made the Imam the advocate for the people and His khalifah, so that he may make Allah’s household reach the paradise of the sacred Sanctuary by the hidden spiritual resurrection. That is, the most important work of the hereafter [i.e. reaching paradise], which the world of humanity could not fulfil, is fulfilled by the spiritual resurrection.
Part 37
The Divine Sunnat and the System of Ism-i A‘zam

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

It is mentioned in verse (7:180): “And to Allah belong the beautiful Names (i.e. the supreme Names), so invoke Him by them.”

Ism-i A‘zam is mentioned in numerous farmāns of Haqrat Mawlānā Sułṭān Muḥammad Shāh, salawātu’l-lāhi ʿalayhi. Thus, we are not only certain [about its miracles], but we have continued to write about its spiritual and ʿirfānī miracles as evidence for it,33 and God willing we will continue to write more. However, this is not an easy subject therefore, I request all our companions to supplicate in the Divine court and to pray humbly and sincerely for spiritual help. Āmin!
Part 38
The Divine Sunnat and the System of Ism-i A‘zam

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

The holy Prophet says: “Allah said: He who shows enmity to a wali (friend) of Mine, I declare war against him. My servant does not draw near to Me through anything loved most by Me of what I have enjoined upon him. My servant continues to seek My closeness through nawāfīl (additional prayers) until I love him. When I love him, I become his ear with which he hears and I become his eye with which he sees and I become his hand with which he grasps and I become his foot by which he walks”.

34
Part 39
Perfect Man

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

An example of the definition of the Perfect Man, which Nasafí has made, is: “If you have heard about the Perfect Man, then know! he has many names, which are given to him with respect to relations and aspects, and they are all correct. O darwish! The Perfect Man is called shaykh (chief), pishwā (leader), hādi (guide), mahdi (guided), dānā (wise), bālīgh (mature), kāmil (perfect), mukammal (complete), imām, khilāfah (vicegerent), qutb (pole), sāhib-i zamān (lord of the time), jām-i jahān-numā (the cup showing the universe), āyinah-yī ḡiti-numā (the mirror showing the universe), tīrīq-i buzurg (supreme theriaca), iksir-i ʿazam (supreme elixir). He is called ʿĪsā, because he brings the dead (ignorant) to life; he is called Khīzr, because he has drunk the water of life; he is called Sulaymān, because he has knowledge of the language of the birds. And this Perfect Man is always in this world and is not more than one, because all existents are like one person and the Perfect Man is the heart of that person. Thus the Perfect Man in this world is not more than one. When that unique one of the world passes away from it, another one succeeds to his rank and occupies his place so that the world may not remain without the heart”.
Part 40
Minor Resurrection

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

The holy Prophet says: “He who dies, his resurrection takes place.”

Death is of two kinds, spiritual and physical. Therefore, the minor or personal resurrection occurs to the chosen servants of God before physical death, whereas the common people experience it after physical death. It happens so because it is not possible to observe the treasures of the secrets of ma'rifat with the eye of certainty without dying before death. This dying before death is called the minor resurrection, and is discussed here.

In the sacred verses of the suratu'l-Baqarah, in which the slaughtering of an ox is mentioned, in addition to an external miracle, there is also a wisdom-filled example of how a mu'min can attain the pure life, by sacrificing his ox-like carnal soul, through knowledge, 'ibādat and discipline. That is, how a mu'min can be eternal by dying during his lifetime. Mawlawī-yi Ma'ñawi in his renowned book Mathnawi, has explained this wisdom as follows:

“Consider me the ox of Ḥaẓrat Mūsā which was granted a special life. Every particle of mine is a resurrection of every free human”. (By the ox of Ḥaẓrat Mūsā was meant a sacrificed living martyr, whose smallest particle (subtle particle) was the source of life for a slain one).

At its stroke the murdered man sprang up from his place - at the words spoken (by God), ‘Strike him with part of it’ (2:68). O my noble ones! Slaughter this ox, if you desire the resurrection of the souls of insight.
I died to the inorganic state and became endowed with growth, and (then) I died to (vegetable) growth and attained to the animal. I died from animality and became Adam (man): why, then, should I fear? When have I become less by dying? At the next remove I shall die to man, that I may soar and lift up my head amongst the angels; And I must escape even from (the state of) the angel: ‘Everything is perishing except His Face’ (28:88). Once more I shall be sacrificed and die to the angel: I shall become that which enters not into the imagination. Then I shall become non-existence: non-existence will say to me, (in tones loud) as an organ, ‘Verily, unto Him shall we return’ (2:156)”.

The esoteric wisdom of the world of particles started from the time of Ḥāẓrat Adam, the vicegerent of God, because by the command of God, the angels who prostrated to him in the beginning, were together the world of particles. Since the prostration of angels in the form of subtle particles was in the sense of obedience and subjugation of the universe, and they were the key powers of the macrocosm and microcosm, therefore in this there was not only an allusion to, but also an actual prophecy that the universe will be subjugated to Ḥāẓrat

Adam and his children. This feat could be achieved through physical and spiritual science.

With respect to the definition of the world of particles, it can be said that there is in it the representative soul of every creature, including stone and iron, and there is nothing whose soul is not there. The world of particles has numerous names from which you may estimate its numerous actions and also be amazed that it has so many wisoms. God is free from all attributes!

The subtle particles that constitute subtle matter and soul are the spiritual army therefore one of their names is jumūd

(armies; sing. jund), which have destroyed many disobedient people in the past. They have many names, such as Gog and

Magog, who destroy the personal world in order to reconstruct it; hijārah (pl. of ḥajar, stones, 11:82; 105:4), the stars which have fallen from the heaven (56:75); the mountain of soul which has shattered into pieces (59:21); the fruits of everything

(28:57), the ants mentioned in verse (27:18), the armies of Ḥāẓrat Solomon, which consist of jīnn, men and birds (27:17), and so on and so forth. In short, they have many other names.

Dharr (in Arabic) is a collective noun, which means small ants and tiny particles scattered in the air. The term ālam-i dharr or the world of particles is coined from the word dharr. These ants or particles mean the particles of soul. The world of particles continues to work for the sālik, from the time he starts to experience the inner resurrection. This is a great revolution of spiritual science.

Since these particles are the essence of the universe and the extract of the existents, therefore they represent not one, but everything. Therefore, one of their names is “everything (kullu shay’).” Thus, wherever in the wise Qur’ān the word “everything” is mentioned, it is this compendium of the universe that is in the form of the world of particles. “Everything” is also applicable to the sacred Sanctuary, which is the rank of the unity of things, as mentioned in verse (13:8): “And everything with Him is in a (fixed) measure”. That is, even though the worlds may be more than one, but in the personal world there is only one world of particles and one sacred Sanctuary.

The wall of the personal world that Gog and Magog lick and destroy is the veil of the animal soul, which stands between the external world and the internal world. During the span of time in which this wall does not exist, the external and the internal senses work together. The eyes see the subtle particles, the ears hear spiritual voices, the nose smells spiritual fragrances and thus such wonders and marvels and great miracles take place.

It is mentioned in verse (3:37) that Ḥazrat Maryam used to receive food by the command of God. I believe that it was spiritual food, which is in the form of fragrances, which the friends of God experience. In view of the possibility of receiving this kind of food, it can be said that in the future this food will be granted to all, because God has promised to show His miracles (41:53).
How terse and most comprehensive is “He who recognises himself/herself recognises his/her Lord”, as said by Mawlā ʿAlī (a.s.)! Does a human being truly contain within his small body a miraculous world in which the macrocosm is contained? Is it possible to see God and every spiritual thing in it? If not, how can recognition be possible? Can we call the recognition of our own self and the universe spiritual science? If “everything” is the name of the world of particles and the sacred Sanctuary, does it also contain within itself the secrets of the Qur’ān?

According to one example, the quintessence of the universe and existents is a human being and his quintessence is the world of particles and that of the latter is the sacred Sanctuary, where there are extremely great secrets with extreme comprehensiveness. It is also at this blessed place where there is the unique and everlasting rank of fanāʿ fi’llāh, merging in God.
Part 42
The Universal Treasure

_In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful_

Since the _Imām-i mubīn_, the Imam of the time, is the living supreme Name of God, therefore he is the Universal Treasure. Today the _Imām-i mubīn_ is a treasure of miracles full of _ta‘wil_ wisdom for all of us.

In February 1949, we had already reached Tashghurghan. This humble _darwīsh_ used to practise rising in the night and doing special ‘_ibādat_. The blessed chain of the observation of the wonders and marvels in [the state of] dream and imagination used to continue. However, one extremely amazing dream, which I saw one night was not only baffling, but also full of the great secrets of _ta‘wil_. All of a sudden I observed the extraordinary and incomparable scene that I had been sacrificed. The corpse of my body was lying on the ground and the head was hanging on a nearby wall. I (i.e. my soul or consciousness) was among numerous shining particles at some height in the direction of the west. I was observing the scene [of my sacrifice] from this height and from among these particles. Who slaughtered me in the dream? It was my beloved spiritual father, the Imam of the time.

Note that in the wise Qur‘ān (37:102-10) the ransom for this sacrifice is the great sacrifice (37:107) and that is to be continuously sacrificed for seven nights and eight days in the stage of ‘_Isrā‘_ and ‘_Izrā‘_ of the spiritual resurrection, acting according to the exalted _farmān_ of “Die before you die” in accordance with the command of God. For, my Mawlā is both _Imāmu‘n-nās_ as well as _Imāmu‘l-muttaqin_.

Praise belongs to Allah, the Lord of the [personal] worlds!
The above title means that each single hadith per se is a unique and everlasting treasure of knowledge and wisdom. The blessed people always yearn to know the hidden secrets of such treasures and such sublime yearning is a grace and help granted by God. When a mu'min receives such grace and help from God, he always thanks Him, lest there be ingratitude for His favours.

1. The secret of secrets of the Compassionate's Image (ṣūrat-i Raḥmān): “Indeed, Allah created Adam according to His Image. O man! Recognise your soul so that you may recognise your Lord”.43

The bright and unique teaching of this hadith is extremely pleasing. That is, when the sālik in his personal journey progresses and enters the sacred Sanctuary, he is transformed into the image of his father Adam, who was created in the Image of the Compassionate. This is an allusion to the rank of the perfection of recognition.

2. Remedy, refuge: Almighty God revealed to Hazrat David and said: “I am your necessary remedy (refuge), so adhere to your remedy”.44

3. Wonders and marvels of wisdom: The wonders and marvels of wisdom are hidden in the Qur'ān and the hadith, therefore, the holy Prophet has said: “Revive your souls with the wonders and marvels of wisdom, because they become complete just as the bodies become complete”.45 That is, the happiness which knowledge and wisdom provide the intellect and soul is also the cause of their completion.
4. Luminous or subtle body: The holy Prophet says: “The soul of a mu'min after death is in a body like his body in this world.”\(^{46}\) By this body is meant the subtle body, which is a luminous human being and lives in paradise. He is a living and rational paradisal attire for the mu'min. He has many other names.

5. Hidden treasure - treasure of recognition: Hazrat David asked Almighty God: “O my Lord! Why did You create creation? God said: I was a hidden treasure, and I wanted to be recognised, I created creation so that I may be recognised.”\(^{47}\) The unique and everlasting treasure of azal, which is kept secret in the sacred Sanctuary of the personal world of the Perfect Man, is mentioned in this sacred hadith. Here by creation is meant the spiritual and intellectual creation, because without it nobody can attain the recognition of God, nor can that precious treasure be available to anyone.

6. The four pillars of Ṣūfism: In some works on Ṣūfism, this hadith is mentioned in the following way: “Sharī'at is my words, ṭariqat is my actions, ḥaqiqat is my states and maʿrifat is my secret.”\(^{48}\)

7. The holy Prophet was asked by the people: “Where does God dwell, in the earth or the heaven? He replied: In the heart of His believing servant.”\(^{49}\) It is also mentioned in a sacred hadith: “Neither My earth, nor My heaven contains Me, it is only the heart of My believing servant that is tender and peaceful, which can contain Me”.\(^{50}\)

8. The mufarrids excelled: The holy Prophet said: “The mufarrids excelled. How blessed are the mufarrids.” He was asked: “Who are the mufarrids? He said: Those who sway in the remembrance of God. How blessed are those who sway in the remembrance of God”.\(^{51}\) (According to Ṣūfis, mufarrids are those who love God and have nothing to do with other than Him.)
9. God's Household: “The people are God's household and the most beloved to God is the one who helps His household and makes them happy”.

10. The person most beloved to God: The holy Prophet was asked about the person most beloved to God. He said: “The one most helpful to humankind”.

Part 44
Soul After Death

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

The holy Prophet says: “The soul of the mu’min after death is in a body like his body in this world”. The only difference is that the worldly body was dense and the one after death is subtle and luminous.

1. The soul of a mu’min, by the command of God, has come to this world from the world of command like a luminous rope. Its upper end is merged in its origin and the lower end is linked with the elemental body. The second example of the soul is like a ladder, which stretches from the higher world to the lower world. The third example is that of a bridge which is stretched between the hereafter and this world. The fourth example is that the soul is like a stream that flows, from its fountainhead in paradise, to your body. The fifth example is that the Universal Soul is like the sun and the particular souls are like rays. The sixth example is that the fountainhead of the soul is like a powerhouse and the individual soul is like a bulb in a house. The seventh example is that the higher world is like the capital city of a country from where the soul has come to this world commissioned to accomplish important services, with a wireless set to communicate with the higher world, but unfortunately it is not functioning fully.

2. Since the subtle soul has come into the dense body, its carnal impurities hinder communication with the higher world. However, a mu’min with high ambition never becomes despondent. He always struggles on the path of obligatory and supererogatory prayers and good deeds, until one day Divine mercy comes to help him and he recognises himself and his Lord and sees his luminous body (ibdā’i body). This is a very great miracle.
3. By the perfect power of God and His infinite mercy, it is not impossible for a mu'min to see his successful 'irfānī death and the subtle body in this very life, and to know the secret of how his soul is kept in a luminous body. Since his soul is a complete copy of its origin, the Single Soul, therefore the recognition of everything lies in his own recognition.

4. The body to which the soul of a mu'min is transferred after death is called the body of similitude (jism-i mithālī), because even though it is luminous and subtle, it is like the physical body in shape, and therefore, it is called the body of similitude. For Qur'ānic references see verses (17:99; 36:81; 38:43), in which the word “mithl (like)” is used for the body of similitude.

5. Another name for the body of similitude is “a new creation (khalq-i jadīd)”, which is mentioned in eight places in the Qur'an. The new creation or the body of similitude is older than even Ḥāẓrat Adam's time, yet it is the newest, because it is the ibdā’ī body in which the chain of renewal continues like the flame of a lamp. It is a great secret to know that its appearance and disappearance depends on its will. Nothing is an obstacle for it, whether a door, a wall or anything else.

6. It is mentioned in the collections of ḥadīth: “The souls are/were/will be [in the form of] assembled armies”. They are always like that, because according to the unchangeable law (sunnat) of God, in every age the Perfect Man is the example of the Single Soul and the specimen of recognition, and in whose personal world is the demonstration of all examples of the past, so that the treasure of recognition may be available in every time. Further, there is the demonstration of the battle of two opposite groups in his personal world, the purpose of which is to establish the religious kingdom in it (personal world).
7. Although it is very difficult for a beginner to know the secrets of soul, no difficulty remains a difficulty forever. If you remember God sincerely and honestly, aim high and advance on the path of self-recognition, God willing, you will succeed. Your soul is extremely miraculous. Its upper end is linked to the Origin. This means that it is in the Universal Soul also, through which it has reached every sublime place. Just as when your telephone is linked to a satellite, your voice can travel throughout the world, similarly, if one of your pure and sincere prayers is merged in the command of “Be!” of the Lord of the Throne (35:10), it can spread in His entire kingdom. This is because merging in God, survival by God, and moving in God cannot be ordinary matters.
It should be known that potentially each individual is an exact copy of the universe and what it contains. Therefore, we believe that “All are in one”. Thus, if a sālik fortunately becomes fanā’ fi’l-murshid (merging in the murshid, spiritual guide), fanā’ fi’r-rasūl and fanā’ fi’llāh, such a merging for him is conscious and with recognition, but for the rest of the people, who are in him in the form of particles, it is in an unconscious state. Thus, this shows that with respect to consciousness there are two kinds of merging: the conscious and the unconscious.

1. The first example of unconscious merging is soil (mineral), which becomes transformed into plant, the second is the plant which becomes merged in animal and the third is the animal which becomes merged in human beings. All these have no consciousness at all and therefore, neither are they aware of their own progress, nor can they have any happiness from it. The reason for this is that they become merged unconsciously and they do not have even an iota of the light of intellect and knowledge.

2. Note in the mighty Qur’ān why many people, despite apparently being human beings, are counted among cattle (7:179; 25:44). The reason for this is that they do not pay attention to the realities and recognitions and do not use the greatest favour of the intellect, they do not recognise the Prophets and the awliyā’, they do not know the law of merging and therefore they do not have any real happiness.

3. The entire noble Qur’ān praises intellect, knowledge and wisdom. To mention just one example, the magnificent title granted to the possessors of intellect by God is ʿulu’l-albāb, which is mentioned in sixteen places of the wise Qur'an. What the attributes of the possessors of intellect are can be seen throughout the Qur'an. Relevant to the subject matter here, their greatest virtue is that they know the secrets of merging.

4. Both tongue and pen fall short of praising the conscious merging. The benefits of this unprecedented and everlasting kingdom are unending. Now, let us discuss how to benefit through the knowledge of certainty of the unconscious merging. It is an extremely faith illumining and soul nourishing concept that the representative particles of all human beings have continued to be in the personal world of every Prophet and wali, and by comprehending it again and again, it becomes part of one's knowledge of certainty. Let us see some of its examples in the wise Qur'an.

5. It is mentioned in verse (7:11): “And verily We created you, then made your form, then We said to the angels: Prostrate yourselves to Adam. They all prostrated themselves except Iblis.” That is, God created you, us together with the rest of the human beings in the form of particles in the world of particles of Çağrat Adam. In this state all of us were angels in the form of particles, then all of us by the command of God prostrated ourselves to Adam in his world of particles, due to which we progressed. Thereafter we became merged in Adam, the vicegerent of God, and God gave us the intellectual form and said to us for the second time to prostrate to Adam and we prostrated ourselves to him except Iblis.

6. O my ʻazīzân! It is necessary to read and understand the subject of the wisdoms of the Divine sunnat (habit, law) in the holy Qur'an and it must be noted that with respect to spiritual matters there is no change in the sunnat of Allah, and this means there is renewal of the spiritual aspect of the story of Adam in the spirituality of every Prophet and wali, so that the fountainhead of knowledge and wisdom may always continue without any shortfall.

7. It is mentioned in a hadith: “Indeed, the Qur'ān has an exoteric aspect and an esoteric aspect and each esoteric aspect has another esoteric aspect till seven esoteric aspects”.

Ḥaẓrat Noah's physical ark was a symbol (mithāl) and the spiritual ark was the meaning or reality of the symbol (mamthūl). Thus, just as we were with every Prophet in the form of particles, so we were borne in Ḥaẓrat Noah's ark too, as mentioned in verse (36:41): “And a sign unto them is that We bore their (spiritual) particles in the laden ark.” A point of wisdom here is that if the ark was already laden, how was place made for any additional embarkers? The fact is that all these representative particles had become merged in the Lord of the ark. This is the fact alluded to here.

8. At the end of the spiritual journey of the personal world, the sālik has to become merged in God. In such a case where will the place of merging be: heavenly throne, earthly throne, the true Ka'bah, baytu'l-ma'ār (Prosperous House), sacred Sanctuary, or the throne that is on the water of knowledge? It is not surprising for there to be more than one merging, and it is also possible that the laden ark is another name of the Divine Throne on the water, because the essence of God is šamad, i.e. free from and above any possibility that one may enter His essence. Šamad also means solid, which alludes that nothing can enter His essence. Thus after fanā' fi'l-walī and fanā' fi'r-rasūl, it is the vision of God that is the rank of fanā' fi'llāh.
Part 46

Ghafûru ’r-Raّm (Forgiving and Merciful)

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

In verse (14:36) it is said: “But whoso follows me, he verily is of me (i.e. he is my spiritual child). And whoso disobeys me, You are forgiving, merciful.” This is Hazrat Abraham’s wisdom-filled statement. Study it with the heart’s eye. In this verse one can see how Hazrat Abraham, who was the Imâmû’n-nâs of his time, intercedes for those who disobeyed him and said: “You (Allah) are forgiving, merciful”. It is clear to the people of intellect that Allah has appointed the Imâmû’n-nâs to cause the spiritual resurrection to take place and thereby deliver Allah’s household.

Reflect upon this verse again and again so that you may receive a cogent answer to the question of how Allah’s khilifah can be both Imâmû’l-muttaqûn and Imâmû’n-nâs simultaneously.
The blessed attributive names of God are always the unbounded and everlasting heavenly treasures for the world of humanity. Thus, the treasure of every attributive name pours the incessant rain of its bounties on the world of humanity. Just as the fountainhead of the world-illumining sun continues to pour its bright and hot rays unceasingly, similarly the Divine names are constantly active in His kingdom.

First of all, note in the very beginning of the noble Qur’ân where the sustainer God praises Himself with wisdom that He specifically sustains each and every personal world, namely every human being. His system of sustaining is extremely marvellous and wonderful. It is more and more general as well as more and more specific. Thus, the sustenance of the mineral, vegetal, animal and human kingdoms is by degrees. Indeed, every human being is a microcosm, rather the macrocosm, because the macrocosm is enfolded in him.

O possessor of intellect and wisdom, observe and reflect deeply on the fact that the knowledge of all heavenly Books is gathered in the wise Qur’ân and that of the latter in the ummu’l-kitâb (the mother of the Book, namely, al-Fâtîhah), and in the beginning of the ummu’l-kitâb is mentioned the most specific sustenance of the world of humanity. Is there not an extremely great wisdom in this? God willing!
All the secrets, miracles and countless blessings of the spiritual resurrection are in the enclosure of the light of the living Name of God, the İmâm-i mubīn (may our souls be sacrificed for him). It is because of this that in every spiritual resurrection all people are delivered and many human souls become angels and the promise that Allah has made to the people becomes fulfilled.

If, according to a hadith, you have accepted that the wise Qur’ān has a zāhir (exoteric aspect) and a bātin (esoteric aspect), it certainly means that its zāhir is a veil and the bātin is the veiled, as Allah speaks from behind the veil (42:51) and as the Qur’ān says that the bounties of God are both apparent and hidden (31:20).

“The people are Allah’s household” is the most wisdom-filled and decisive farmān, in whose presence the people of intellect do not need any other proof. However, it can be useful to explain the realities and recognitions by using this golden opportunity.

Praise belongs to Allah, the Lord of the [personal] worlds!
Question: What is your belief regarding telepathy or illumination (ishrāq)? Is it possible that it will progress in the future? Is it related to religion or to science?

Answer: I have full conviction in telepathy or illumination, for Allah has endowed human beings with many higher qualities. If they are developed and used, human beings can perform many astonishing deeds. In the future, the progress of telepathy is certain. I believe in the mingling of proto-religion and proto-science. Telepathy is common to both. Today the wall, which stands between religion and science, is one of words, terms and language. Alas! If only the scientists had known the language of Qur’ānic wisdom and had understood spirituality! Alas! If we were able to utter what is in our heart! Alas! If all the people knew the secrets of the Perfect Men!

Reflect on this wisdom-filled verse: “He inspired it (soul) with its debauchery and its righteousness” (91:8). But the ta’wili wisdom of this verse is that God did not do this work Himself, for He is free from and above teaching someone sinfulness and debauchery. Therefore, this work was done by the muqill (misleading Satan) who is the source of evil. Again, God is also free from and above teaching righteousness, standing in opposition to the muqill (misleader). Therefore, He, the Absolute King, gave this power to the true Guide, to be the source of good and to inspire the people with righteousness.
A great change occurred in my body after approximately forty days of i'tikāf or chillah or abstinence from drinking and eating. During that time I was granted spiritual food, which one is made to smell in the form of diverse fragrances. I have mentioned this event to my friends and have also recorded it in my writings. This task is accomplished by the jinn of the world of particles. These jinn are in the form of extremely tiny particles and the speed of their flight is faster than that of lightning. They can bring fragrances of flowers, fruits, medicinal herbs and fragrant leaves of trees instantly from any corner of the world, which create a kind of subtle body within oneself.

Fragrance is not a soul, but a body that nourishes the body, particularly the one that transforms from dense to subtle. It is for this reason that jinn and paris inhabit mountains and deserts, where they receive fragrances and oxygen from the fresh air. Prophets and awliyā’ have already experienced such countless miracles.

Two worlds exist together in God’s Godhead: the world of creation and the world of command. The difference between them is that in the world of creation things come into existence in time, whereas in the world of command, they appear instantly in no time by the utterance of the word “Be (kun)” or by the mere will of God. This means that in the world of command things appear in an ibdā’i way. Thus, it is possible that all those foods, which the jinn used to bring in the form of diverse fragrances in the prison, were, in reality, ibdā’i bounties, but it was my weakness that at the time, I could not duly understand that they were ibdā’i miracles.
For forty days I had not seen even the shape of a loaf of wheat bread. One day a strange person brought a beautiful loaf of wheat bread in a plate and disappeared. I did not understand what was happening. I do not remember exactly whether the loaf was already broken into pieces in the plate or I had broken it. When I extended my hand to eat it, a râhâni stopped me. The amazing thing is that I was perplexed; I was between doubt and certainty because of this miracle and wondered whether this was an ibdâ'î miracle or worldly bread. However, it must be noted that some miracles take place in incredible things. Even if there is doubt in a miracle, there is wisdom in it, because people are tried by it.
It is mentioned in verse (51:47): “And We have built the heaven with (Our) hands and We extend it wide”. That is, Allah expands this universe or He creates universes like this one. In any case, Allah always creates.

Now, let us reflect upon the seventy thousand copies, i.e. universes. The Imam from the progeny of Ħaẓrat Muḥammad, peace be upon him and his progeny, who is from the progeny of Abraham, is Allah’s khalifah and the Imāmu’n-nās. Therefore when the time comes, he causes the spiritual resurrection to one of his spiritual children and keeps him in the stage of Isrāʾīl and ‘Izraʾīl for seven nights and eight days continuously, which in taʿwil is called the great sacrifice (37:107) as has already been mentioned.

Seventy thousand universes for Allah’s household are created in this stage from the personal world of the sālik. This is not a new act in God’s Godhead, rather it is the same Divine sunnat that has always continued in the servants of Allah.

The exalted farmān of “Die before you die” is for the sake of the salvation of Allah’s household and there are countless wisdoms in it.

The Miracle of Quake

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

All those great miracles that are related to the spiritual resurrection are mentioned in the mighty Qur’ân. Among these miracles, one is the miracle of quake, which is mentioned in verses (2:214; 22:1; 99:1). Great secrets are hidden in such severe miracles. It is not an external or material quake rather it is an inner and miraculous spiritual quake. It is indeed severe, but eventually it is full of wisdom and full of mercies and blessings. It is a miraculous discipline (riyâzat) for a sâlik and after such trials come the paradise of the sacred Sanctuary, which has been repeatedly mentioned.

Study the above-mentioned verses carefully so that, God willing you may be ready for its ta’wil. You must continue to fear the events of the resurrection and simultaneously have good opinion about Allah. To have good opinion about Allah [means that He has] ever-pervading kindness. Nevertheless, you must continue your utmost struggle for the sake of knowledge and wisdom! Âmin and again âmin!

Part 53
Divine Treasures and the World of Humanity

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

It is mentioned in verse (15:21): “And there is not a thing but with Us are the treasures of it, and We do not send it down but in a known measure”.

The specific mention in this verse is related to human beings that the Divine treasures are for their sake and the blessings are sent down gradually according to their knowledge and action.

The door of each and every Divine treasure faces the world of humanity. In other words, the endless Divine treasures are specifically for human beings. God, the Benevolent Lord, loves the human soul very much. Therefore He makes all people enter paradise by the force of the spiritual resurrection, as there are only two ways of submission and return, one willingly and the other unwillingly (3:83).
Part 54
Renewal of Spiritual Resurrection

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

It is mentioned in verses (21:33; 36:40): “And everything rotates on a circle”.

The infinite resurrections that Hazrat Hakim Pir Nasir-i Khusraw mentions in his Diwan,66 is the mention of the renewal of endless spiritual resurrection. The purpose of such a tremendous and unique system is that Allah’s khalifah, the Imamu’n-näs, may make the people of the age enter paradise through the spiritual resurrection. Had it not been so, how would Allah’s household be treated aptly and how would the caliphates and kingdoms of paradise be established? How would people be made duly aware of knowledge and wisdom? How would people recognise the beauties that are in the attributive Names of God, may He be exalted?

It is said in a hadith: “The Qur’an is a tractable thing with many aspects, so interpret it according to the best aspect”.67 That is, explain the wisdom of the best aspect.
Part 55
Willingly or Unwillingly

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

It is mentioned in verse (13:15): “And it is to Allah to Whom prostrate all those who are in the heavens and the earth willingly or unwillingly, as do their shadows in the mornings and evenings.”

It is said in verse (17:44): “And there is not a thing but does His tasbih (to purify God from every attribute), but you understand not their tasbih.” Also it is said in verse (24:41): “Each one of them indeed knows its șalāt and tasbih.”

The above references are evidence of the wisdom-strung speech of Allah, may He be exalted. Whenever ‘everything’ is mentioned, first come human beings. There is everything in the world of particles.

In the šūr-i Isrāfīl there is the miracle of the control of the light of the Imām-i mubin, in which the world of particles is doing nāqūrī supplication together with the praise of God, as Imam ʿAlī says: “I am the nāqūr.” Thus, everything does the silent tasbih of God in the world of particles, whereas they all do nāqūrī supplication during every spiritual resurrection. The wise Qurʾān also mentions the human being abundantly without mentioning him by name.
Part 56
The Concept of the Waves of Light$^{69}$

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

It has already been mentioned that belief, namely, the faith of a staunch Muslim, turns into light when it reaches the level of perfection. Thus to imagine light or to conceive the waves of light at any initial stage, is included in faith. It should be remembered that there are many potentialities hidden in the human existence. Among them, the faculty of imagination and conception is extremely important, because of the fact that, it is linked to the observation of light after making certain progress. Thus the conception of the waves of light is an extremely useful shughl (contemplation of God). And this highly important shughl should be made through a ma’thūrah prayer (a prayer which has been transmitted from the Prophet or the Imams) related to seeking light, in the light of knowledge and wisdom. Take for instance, the following prayer, which Imam Ja’far aṣ-Ṣādiq, may peace be on him, used to recite after every morning prayer (ṣalāh):

“Allāhumma’ f’al li nūran fi qalbi, wa-nūran fi samī, wa-nūran fi baṣarī, wa-nūran fi lisānī, wa-nūran fi shārī, wa-nūran fi basharī, wa-nūran fi laḥmī, wa-nūran fi damī, wa-nūran fi iẓāmī, wa-nūran fi aṣāhī, wa-nūran bayna yadayya, wa-nūran fi khalfī, wa-nūran ān yaminī, wa-nūran ān yasārī, wa-nūran min fawqī, wa-nūran min taḥtī”$^{70}$

“O Allah! make for me a light in my heart, and a light in my ear, and a light in my eye, and a light in my tongue, and a light in my hair, and a light in my skin, and a light in my flesh, and a light in my blood, and a light in my bones, and a light in my nerve, and a light in front of me, and a light behind me, and a light on my right side, and a light on my left side, and a light above me and a light below me”.

Knowledge for a united humanity
The above-mentioned blessed prayer, on the one hand reveals how great the need of the waves of light is for the health and soundness of the human intellect, soul and body; and on the other hand it can be estimated that this wisdom-filled prayer, although initially it is like a belief, hope and concept, gradually becomes a practical reality for a mu'min. As can be seen from verse (57:12), when the light of faith becomes perfect, it runs in front and on the right side of the mu'min men and mu'min women. In that state, every such mu'min becomes a proof of the above prayer. That is to say, he becomes surrounded on six sides by the circle of the waves of light. For, the appearance of light from the front is the sign of perfection. It is the wisdom-filled principle of the wise Qur'an that it mostly covers lower and subsidiary teachings by speaking about the highest teaching.

When the glorious Qur'an says: “Allah is the light of the heavens and the earth” (24:35) according to the people of wisdom, by this significant verse the concept of the entire universe wherein humankind is also necessarily included, becomes like a large ball of iron, which has become red in a glowing fire. If this concept can be understood only at the place of the truth of certainty (haqqu'l-yaqin) then let us give you a concept of the vision or eye of certainty (çaynu'l-yaqin): Consider the Divine light as an endless and unfathomable ocean in which everything of the heaven and the earth is immersed and humankind swims in it like a fish. There is a great difference between these two examples. In the former, the iron that has become hot and red, in a sense, has become merged in the fire, whereas in the latter, the fish that swims in the water has not become merged in the essence of the water.

Now let us explain the same point in the light of the knowledge of certainty (îlmu'l-yaqin) so that it may be easily understood. In this connection, first and foremost, it is extremely necessary to understand the nature and essence of light. For light does not only mean that which is for the inner eye, rather its form and action are in accordance with the need of each of the external and internal senses. A small example of it can be given from a powerhouse, which does not only provide electricity for a city, but also does many other important and useful tasks. Thus the light of guidance, which is required by the heart and brain is in the states of intellect and understanding, knowledge and wisdom. The light ordained for the external and internal ear is in the different states of the blessed voice. The light of the external eye and internal eye is undoubtedly the light that is related to observation. And the light, which the tongue needs, is in the state of the extraordinary power of speech. This is the description of the waves of light.

There cannot be any doubt and ambiguity in the above-mentioned prayer of light being authentic and wisdom-filled. Certainly, it is extremely coherent and systematic and an excellent example of comprehensiveness and perfection. On the whole, the health and peace of intellect, soul and body is sought in this prayer. Here an important question arises: Is there a need of separate lights for the hair, skin, flesh, blood, bones and nerves of a human being? Yes. Why not, while the structure, action and need of each of the parts of a body are separate and specific. Since hair is a conspicuous sign of the existence of the vegetative soul in the human body, therefore, the vegetative soul is in need of the light of guidance separately. It has to work in the entire body with sound health and cleanliness, it has to grow a certain substance in the form of hair, and there is also an indication to botany in it.

The description of the light that is fixed for the skin is extremely interesting. Thus, one of the waves of this light has frozen at the outer part of the human skin. This frozen light is particularly found on the face. Had this light of the face not been there, Adam, may peace be on him, and his children would not have had any relation with the Form or Image of the Compassionate (ṣūrat-i Raḥmān). When the faithful servant smiles, being pleased by the good news of the Qur’an and Islam, then you should understand that there is a wave of light on his face. If he becomes serious, being concerned about religion, then this is another wave of light. If a fortunate (mu'min) sheds tears in the love of the holy Prophet and for the sake of spiritual progress, this is a third wave of light. This wave is very powerful and it is expected that it may cause a revolution [in his personal world]. Moreover, look in verse (39:23), so that you may be sure of the miracles of the light of the skin and thus attain the wealth of external and internal healing. (continues)
Flesh is the main source of physical strength; therefore, it needs the light of guidance so that it may remain safe and sound from every evil and sickness, and so that a preponderance and inclination towards patience, worship and goodness may be created in it. There are many signs of the running of the waves of light in the flesh of a true servant of God, such as, feeling of a spiritual current, overpowering ecstasy or tenderness of the heart due to the influence of the remembrance of God and the discourse of knowledge of certainty, ecstasy due to Divine love, the purifying quake (zalzalah-yi ṭuhūr), as a result of the successful abundant remembrance of God. The purifying quake is a bodily miracle, which is mentioned in five places in the holy Qur’ān. This agitating light (i.e. quake) continues to occur long before the stage of ‘Izrā’il (manzil-i ‘Izrā‘îl) and full-fledged spirituality, when a darwish or ṣūfī, after abundant remembrance of God, lies down in the state of half sleep. It should also be noted here that flesh is the soil and the earth of the personal world, skin its surface, hair its vegetables, blood its water, nerves its waterways (i.e. streams, canals etc.) and the bones its mountains.

One extremely important and wisdom-filled example: How is wheat ground and turns into flour in the water mill? The grindstone revolving with its weight grinds it. What makes the grindstone revolve? The machinery that is set up under it? What is the moving force of this machinery? The water-fall, which falls on the wheel. What pushes the water-fall? The water of the canal. What is the source of the water of the canal? The water of the stream. What is the source of the stream? Reservoirs of water in the mountains. What are their sources? Snow, rain, clouds, ocean and the sun. What is the cause of this amazing and wonderful act of the sun? The pressure of the All-encompassing Soul (Universal Soul, Supreme Soul), which constantly falls on the universe and causes the ether of the centre of the universe to dissolve and transform into a candescent gas, called the sun. By whose command does the Universal Soul or the Soul of souls perform this act? By the command of God, the blessed, the exalted. From this example, the law becomes clear that God is the Causer of causes, that is, He has created many causes for the completion of every act. In this chain of causes, after every cause, appears another greater cause until the people of insight become sure of the higher causes and the Causer of the causes.

The purpose of the above example is that God creates all the causes and means of cure and healing. But it is necessary to see in this how we can remember God more and more and what are the means through which we can recognise Him. However, despite this fact, His all-embracing mercy allows each individual, according to his knowledge and capacity, to use any of these causes and means.

The need for the continuous waves of light for the movement and circulation of blood is because of the fact that, without them, its system of circulation does not act according to internal health. An external example of this is the way in which water revolves on a circle, such as the chain of the meeting of rivers with the ocean, the creation of vapour from the ocean, the creation of clouds from the vapour and the creation of rain from the clouds and the creation of rivers from the rain, all this is due to the power and energy of the material light, i.e. the sun.
Similarly, through the help of the waves of the internal light, blood can circulate in the human body without any defect and sickness. The sun of the personal world is the heart, and the wisdom of the prayer of light says that the circulation of spiritual blood, i.e. light is possible only if there is light in the heart.
There can be a disease in the bones too, therefore to prevent or cure it they also need the light of health and healing. One of the numerous great miracles of the light through which the Perfect Men pass is related to the bones. And that is, they recite the tasbih of God (i.e. purifying God from attributes) in harmony with them as the mountains of their personal world, as mentioned in the Qur'anic story of Ḥaẓrat David, peace be on him (21:79, 34:10, 38:18). Moreover, the bone of the forehead is the Mount Sinai of the personal world, which is the place of the truth of certainty, where there is nothing but miracles.

The importance of the nerves is that they, in addition to being like the water-ways, are also the means of communication through which the cells and parts of the entire body receive every message and command of the heart and mind. Thus there is a need to generate a source of light in the heart, so that from it, the healing waves of light may run in the entire body through the nerves. In order to attain this goal, according to the guidance of the Qur'ān, God is remembered abundantly. For, while acting upon the commandments of religion by doing the ḥiḍādat of the heart day and night in the light of the knowledge of certainty, the waves of light are conceived automatically, in which lies the secret of the health of the intellect, soul and body.

The blessed and wisdom-filled verse (76:1) says: “Has there come on man a while of the dahr (as a renewal) in which he was a thing unmentioned (i.e. he was in the state of fanā’ fi’llāh)”.

Question: Who is mentioned here?

Answer: You see that according to Divine speech the highest place of humankind is fanā’ fi’llāh and that again is in the form of renewal. You may call this discovery ta’wil or ma’rifat or spiritual science. Prior to this day, these secrets were not mentioned in any book of this world. This most difficult ta’wil is solely with the Imam of the time from the progeny of the holy Prophet. This humble darwīsh receives this charity of knowledge and wisdom from his spiritual presence. If there is someone in this world who has this knowledge, he should serve the despondent humanity. I think that many people have become the victims of spiritual despondency. There is no pill to cure this, except true ‘ibādat, the knowledge of certainty, the eye of certainty and the truth of certainty.

The irshād: “He/she who recognises his/her soul recognises his/her Lord” is very well-known. According to me, its ta’wil should be that such a human being recognises all other human souls as well, because soul is but one.
Part 61
The Wise Qur’an and the Human Soul

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

It is mentioned in verse (6:94): “And certainly you have come to Us alone as We created you at first, and you have left behind your backs what We gave you.”

Introduction: According to the law of enfolding (17:104), in every spiritual resurrection there is only one Single Soul, in which all human souls are gathered or merged. Such a Single Soul is finally called fard (pl. furada), meaning alone or solitary. The above-mentioned noble verse is a universal [principle], therefore it addresses all spiritual resurrections.

The gist of this verse is that during every spiritual resurrection all people are merged in the Single Soul and then they are merged in Allah in the sacred Sanctuary. Thus this verse (6:94) too, like the verse in surah of Dahr (76:1) alludes to the highest place of humankind and here too, fanâ‘ fi’llâh is renewed.

Praise belongs to Allah for His favour and beneficence!
There are magnificent centres of wisdom in many places of the wise Qur’an. One of them is verse (59:24): “He is Allah, the creator, the maker, the former (i.e. the one who grants the šūrat-i Raḥmān to human souls in the sacred Sanctuary), His are the beautiful Names (i.e. the supreme Names), whatever is in the heavens and the earth does His tasbih, and He is the mighty, the wise”.

In verse (3:6), it is mentioned: “He it is Who forms you in the wombs as He likes.” It is crystal clear from this verse that the physical form is given to humankind in the womb of the mother. Thus, in the above-mentioned verse (59:24) al- khāliq is first, then al-bārī and finally al-muṣawwir. Therefore, al-muṣawwir means the one who gives the šūrat-i Raḥmān to human souls in the sacred Sanctuary.
Part 63
The Wise Qur’an and the Human Soul

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

It is said in a hadith: “So whoever will enter paradise will be in the image of Adam”. In another hadith it is said: “Allah, may He be mighty and exalted, created Adam in His image”. This creation is neither physical nor spiritual, but intellectual in the sacred Sanctuary. Whoever enters it becomes in the image of his father Adam, and Adam was created by Allah in His own image.

In addition to these Ahādith, it is better if the above is substantiated with Qur’ānic evidence. Thus, in verse (34:13) it is mentioned that the jinn used to make pictures for Hazrat Solomon. It is extremely interesting and pleasing that these pictures were the spiritual copies of Hazrat Solomon himself, who possessed Prophethood, Imamat and the kingdom. Thus, O my dears! Try to attain the rank of fanā’ fi’l-imām today, so that tomorrow in paradise you may be a copy of the Solomon of the time, which in ta’wil is the surat-i Rahmān, God willing! Jinn mean angels and the ta’wil of the surat-i Rahmān is fanā’ fi’l-imām.”
In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

It is said in a noble hadith: “People are God’s household, and the most beloved to God is the one who helps His household and makes them happy. And to walk with a Muslim brother in order to fulfil his need is dearer to God than the ītikāf (consecutive ībādat) of two months in the holy Ka‘bah.”

Question: What are the wisdoms of this hadith?
Answer: (1) There are many amazing and revolutionary wisdoms in it, one of which is that God loves His creatures very much. (2) It is a bright fact for the people of the inner eye that the Creator of the universe will never waste His creature, the human being (insān).

Spiritual Resurrection and the Descent of Angels

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

It is said in verses (41:30-32): “[As for] those who say, our Lord is Allah, then continue in the right way, the angels descend upon them, saying: Fear not, nor grieve and receive good news of the paradise which you were promised. We are your friends in this world’s life and in the hereafter, and you shall have therein what your souls desire and you shall have therein what you ask for. An entertainment by the forgiving, the merciful.”

Tafsîr and ta’wil: Those who say in the true sense of the recognition of God, that their Lord is Allah, then they take ism-i dâ’am from Allah’s khalifah, the Imam of the time and practise special discipline (riyâžat) and God grants them success, the angels of the spiritual resurrection descend upon them, i.e. Isrâ’îl and ëZrâ’îl, peace be upon them, with their armies. Such people experience the spiritual resurrection, about which you have read in many articles.
Part 67
Wonders and Marvels of Spiritual Science

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

Fourteen hundred years ago, the holy Qur’ân had clearly prophesied that Allah will start to show the signs (âyât) of His omnipotence, both in the external world and in the world of souls (41:53). Thus without any doubt, we can say that today those signs or wonders and marvels of God are apparent before the people in the form of material science and its inventions, and now they are going to show their wonders in the world of soul or the personal world in the form of spiritual science.

If the external and material signs of the Omnipotent God can be called material science, His internal and spiritual signs can definitely be called spiritual science, because even though the external world, the world of souls and the signs which appear in them, all belong to God, yet those signs and that science will have greater importance and supremacy. Its amazing miracles are going to take place in the personal world, because the human being’s rank is more lofty and exalted than the entire universe and existents.

The wisdom-filled prophecy of the wise Qur’ân regarding the magnificent manifestation of spiritual science is with respect to the masses and the majority of people, otherwise according to the Prophets and Perfect Men, spiritual science has continued its work from the very beginning of human history, the numerous examples of which are found in the heavenly scriptures. This means that by virtue of spiritual progress, man can benefit from the great secrets of the Supreme Soul all the time, as Khwâjah Ḥâfiz says in his famous verse:

\text{Fayz-i rûhu'l-qudus ar bâz madad fâmâyad} \\
\text{Digarân ham bikanand ânchih Masihâ mikard}\]

If the grace of the Holy Spirit ever helps again
Others too, will perform the same (miracles) as Jesus.

Today, if a humble, ordinary person like me discusses the secrets of spiritual science, then you must be sure that that blessed age is coming, in which according to the above-mentioned Qur’anic prophecy, that special spiritual science is going to be commonly accessible to the masses, so that the world of humanity may truly progress materially, ethically and spiritually. Indeed, it is absolutely clear that until the great revolution of spiritual science occurs, the extremely complex problems of the people of the world and their poverty and ignorance cannot come to an end, because it is only spiritual science in which the Sustainer of the world has kept limitless and countless blessings of knowledge. A bright example of it is material science, due to which the world has progressed materially.

God, the Great, the Exalted, has actually or potentially subjugated all the things of the heaven and the earth to humankind. This greatest favour is mentioned in several verses of the holy Qur’ān. Full attention is drawn to both kinds of external and internal sciences in this Divine teaching. I would now like to mention in the following, some important and amazing things that have been observed and experienced by an organisation:

First of all, let us reiterate the well-known dictum that a human being is not only a personal world (microcosm), but also the unique spiritual museum in God's creation. In this museum of God there are limitless and countless living and speaking wonders and marvels. Among them, there are living particles, which comprise diverse wisdom-filled examples. They can demonstrate not only the amazing example of Gog and Magog and the spiritual army, but also the secrets related to the recognition of the world of particles. Thus, the story of these innumerable small particles, that consist of the subtle body and soul, is extremely unique and lengthy.

It is also necessary to mention that the external and internal senses work together in spiritual science. Therefore, their spiritual training is extremely necessary. Just as a capable person before being sent into space, undergoes arduous physical exercises before going beyond the pull of gravity of the planet earth, similarly extremely strenuous exercise together with going beyond the pull of the sphere of carnality is a dire necessity to experience spiritual science. Otherwise it is possible for someone to dare to suggest that nothing exists by the name of “spiritual science”. (continues)
Another very great and useful experience of the blessed spiritual science is that a human being's olfactory faculty can attain various fragrances, in which there are subtle, atomic nutrients as well as spiritual medicines for different diseases. It becomes evident by reflecting well on this experience that the treasure of the quintessence of everything is soul. That is, the colour and fragrance of every flower, every fruit and every medicinal herb are due to [the presence of] the soul, because it is the miracle of the soul that it comes to every flower, fruit, grain and vegetable together with colour, fragrance and taste.

How blessed the demanding conditions of chillah or forty days of spiritual exercise are to a yearning darwēsh (seeker of spirituality), can be estimated only by the people of wisdom from the following event. In such a time in the past, when I cherished hunger and thirst, the mu'akkal or guardian angel asked me: Tell me, through what kind of fragrances would you like to experience subtle (spiritual) food? It was requested of him that there was a great need of spiritual wealth, to experience certain flowers, fruits and herbs in their separate fragrances. They were made available instantly. It would not be out of place if this were considered a glad tiding of spiritual science.

The personal experience of spiritual science begins to take place specifically in the stage where spiritual death before the physical death or the voluntary death before the compulsory death occurs to the sālik or traveller on the spiritual path. The chain of renewal of this death continues for seven nights and eight days, so that it may be possible to amply reflect and ponder upon its magnificent miracles, marvels and wonders. In that state, the sālik is filled with the spiritual quintessence of the universe and existents in the form of particles and his soul is spread in the universe. This is repeated in the above-men tioned duration. Two matrices are ordained for this purpose. One is the matrix of the macrocosm and the other the microcosm (personal world), so that the universe may become the great man by being moulded in the human matrix and the human may become the macrocosm by being moulded in the cosmic matrix, as Mawlā ʿAli has said:

\[\text{Wa-taḥṣabu annaka jirmun ṣaghirun} \]
\[\text{Wa-fikaḥṭawāʾī-ʾalāmuʾī-akbaru}^{85}\]

And you think that you are a small body,
While the great universe is contained in you?

Thus, spiritual science is the greatest gift of God, by which not only are the personal world and the external universe subjugated, but their countless copies are also received by the sālik. At present, the world is facing a very great question concerning UFOs. The question is: What is the reality of UFOs? The answer to this question is as interesting and useful, as the question is difficult and important. UFO is a temporary name of the advanced human who comes here from another planet, or who lives in this world, because man can be transformed from dense into subtle and fly and he can also turn into jinn. God is testing us through this subtle creature. The appearance of this subtle creature also indicates that the time of spiritual science has already arrived. The UFO is also the human who has become an angel in his appropriate time and by the command of God, his manifestation signifies that time has changed and the spiritual cycle has arrived.

Is vegetation not the advanced form of minerals? Is the existence of animals not created from vegetation? Is the human being not the quintessence of animals? Are angels, due to being invisible, not called jinn? Is it not true that among creatures, there is externally a relationship and internally a unity? The collective answer and gist of this is that UFOs, in reality, are the advanced human beings of other planets whose spiritual science has reached its climax.

On the global or international level, ethical law always demands that every country and nation that has progressed should help the under-developed ones. Thus, the sacred duty of those who live on other planets is to help those of their brothers who are under-developed in spiritual science and to help them to reach the other stars from the planet earth. This will indeed happen by the command of God. Why are these UFOs or Flying Saucers appearing in the form of space ships? This is a wisdom-filled indication in which they say: We are your cosmic ships in which you will be enabled to travel throughout the universe in the future.

One strange feature of the grandeur and sovereignty of a king is that sometimes he travels around his country in disguise, so that he can come to know whether or not people recognise him by some sign or symbol. Such trials used to take place particularly at night. The night symbolises ignorance as well as the bā'īn, i.e. the inner or esoteric aspect of existence. Similarly, advanced human beings or angels come to this world in the guise of Flying Saucers to try scholars, scientists and great nations.

An UFO is in fact, that supernatural human being who is called jihlthah-i ibdā'iyyah or astral body. Also it is that miraculous attire, by being transferred into which, one feels neither heat nor cold, nor can any kind of weapon harm it. (continues)
If the story of Adam is explained in the light of spiritual science, many secrets can indeed be discovered, in which benefits abound for his children. For instance, who were the angels who first prostrated to Ḥaẓrat Adam by the command of God? What is the concept of their existence? What wisdom was hidden in the prostration? Is there any invigorating glad news in it for the children of Adam?

In answer to such questions, spiritual science says: the angels who first prostrated to Ḥaẓrat Adam were the angels of the world of particles (cālam-i dharr). With respect to existence, they were only particles, who were falling down into the personality of Ḥaẓrat Adam, and this was the external form of prostration. These angels were particles externally, but internally they were the keys of the subjugation of the personal world and the universe. Therefore, prostration was in the sense of obedience. That is, these angels will, in reality, subjugate the personal world and the universe for Ḥaẓrat Adam. In this prostration there is definitely glad tidings for the children of Ḥaẓrat Adam, because it does not please Divine mercy to make the father the object of prostration (masjūd-i malāʾik), by conferring the crown of vicegerency on him, while assigning his children to hell-fire. Thus, in the way the angels prostrated to Ḥaẓrat Adam first in the world of particles and later on in the world of intellect, there are definitely glad tidings for the children of Adam in two stages:

In the first stage, that is, in the cycle of the chosen ones, his virtues and excellences will be attained only by the Prophets and awliyāʾ; and in the second stage, that is in the cycle of the common people, his spirituality will also work for them after the spiritual revolution. It is because of this that the wise Qur’ān mentions the honour and excellence of the children of Adam and also exhorts them.

In the light of spiritual science it has also been discovered that the angels did the second and last prostration to Ḥaḍrat Adam in the world of intellect, where all of them were (in the form of) one great angel. When in the example of angels the spiritual and intellectual faculties prostrated to Ḥaḍrat Adam, his vicegerency was actually established in the cosmic earth. It must be mentioned here that the vicegerency which is vouchsafed by God is not confined to planet earth only, rather it is the vicegerency of the entire universe, because the holy Qur’ān says that the earth of the Divine vicegerency is very spacious (24:55; 29:56; 39:10). Thus, the Qur’ān indicates that this earth is: (1) the Universal Soul, (2) the universe and all its stars, and (3) the personal worlds.

There are many spiritual secrets in the story of Ḥaḍrat Adam. After mentioning only a few examples, let us come to that invigorating glad news which is for the children of Ḥaḍrat Adam. That is, when his vicegerency was proclaimed, there was in it the ever-reaching and all-inclusive good news that it was not confined to his physical life, rather it would continue forever in the chain of his heirs. Further, when the cycle of the common people will come, great miracles of his vicegerency will appear so that the masses may also receive innumerable benefits of spiritual science.

The wisdom-filled secrets of God are extremely marvellous and wonderful. Externally He gives freewill to people and it is up to them whether they worship Him or not, but internally He compels them to follow the path of guidance and worship. This amazing feat takes place in the personal world of the Perfect Man. Reflect on verse (13:15): “And to Allah prostrate all those who are in the heavens and the earth, willingly or unwillingly.” See also verse (24:41): “Each one knows its salāt (prayer) and tasbīh”. There are many more such verses in the Qur’ān.

It is a fact that there are representative particles of all things in the world of particles and it is necessary for every representative particle of every human being, of the select and of the common, to be present there. Thus, according to the above-mentioned Qur’ānic reference, it is the world of particles (which is in the Perfect Man), where everybody is worshipping Allah and prostrating to Him, as said in verse (19:93): “There is none in the heavens and the earth, but must come to God as a slave.” This means that numerous difficult and intricate problems can only be solved through spiritual science, which is going to appear in the cycle of the masses through the personal world, as God says in verse (39:69): “And the earth will illumine with the light of its Lord.” This is the mention of the Resurrection of the resurrections, in which the earth is going to be illumined by spiritual science, that is, Divine knowledge and wisdom. Here, earth means the inhabitants of the earth. Thus, according to the Divine promise (41:53), subsequent to the external world, Divine signs will appear in the internal world (the personal worlds) as well. The totality of these miracles is called spiritual science through which the masses will be able to use astonishing spiritual powers, which will be on the pattern of material instruments invented by physical science, but far superior and better than them. Or, it is possible that in the time of such tremendous spiritual progress, material instruments may gradually disappear. For instance, if it were possible to use telepathy universally, who would bother to use a material telephone; if flying saucers are subjugated, aeroplanes will become redundant. (continues)
Together with spiritual progress, there is a prophecy of great changes on the planet earth, as mentioned in verses (18:7-8): “Verily We have made whatever is on the earth as an adornment thereof, that We may test them (as to) which of them is best in conduct. And verily We will make whatever is therein bare, barren ground.” That is, when all people will continue to receive the spiritual food of fragrances, consequently they will be transformed into subtle bodies and will not need to cultivate, because they will live in the paradise of subtle existence.

The holy Qur’an says: “Humankind were one community (and are).” (2:213). That is, in the concept of azal, abad and the world of particles, all human beings were one community and they are going to be one [again] in the greatest Resurrection, but in the present cycle they differ in their opinions and views. The reason for this is that, externally they are given freewill, due to which they are divided into groups and are scattered. However, internally it is the will of Almighty God, due to which they are united in the personal world of the Perfect Man.

There are certain verses at the end of some Qur’anic surahs, which contain tremendous knowledge and wisdom and which are called “khawātim (endings)” by the scholars of Qur’anic sciences. One such verse, at the end of the surah of Naml (Ant, 27), is: “And say: Praise belongs to Allah. Soon will He show you His signs so that you shall recognise them. Your Lord is not heedless of what you all do.” (27:93). This wisdom-filled address of the holy Qur’an is to the entire humankind through the holy Prophet, in which the appearance, observation and recognition of Divine miracles in the form of material and spiritual science is prophesied. This is the congenial mention of those great signs and miracles, by observing which at the level of ‘aynu’l-yaqīn (eye of certainty) and haqqu’l-yaqīn (the truth of certainty) the steadfast spiritual seeker attains recognition of his personal world and the recognition of God.

Here, in order to elucidate the purport of the two parts of my article “Spiritual Science”, I would like to pose some important questions: What was God’s will in creating all people? Did God not desire that people should return to Him willingly or unwillingly? Is it not true that when someone commits a wrong deed he is punished for a while, but eventually a decision is taken about him according to God’s eternal will, in which there is good only?

The wisdom-filled answer to all these questions is in the following hadith: “People are God's household and the most beloved of them to God is the one who helps His household and makes them happy”.⁸⁸
In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

O Allah! Bestow on me love’s grace
That I may be the slave of love’s King for all eternity

A beggar at his door, lovesick am I
O heavenly physician! Bestow on me love’s remedy

O incomparable beauty! O light of perfect love!
May my soul be sacrificed for you every moment, for you are the soul of love

You are the king of the beauties of both worlds, the light of lovers’ eyes
The envy of houris and fairies, the soul and the beloved of love

My moon! My king! I am at your command!
My heart and soul accept every command of your love

I know not: What is a secret? What is a sign?
Thus I am constantly bewildered and perplexed by love

I am not alone, drowned in the ocean of your love
O flood of love! Behold, all are drowned in you

O soul and beloved of love! This beggar, your Naṣīr, died for love
And yet was revived by what slew him. Yes, revived!

The Law of Paradise

(from the mute expression of a dweller of paradise)

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

By grace divine did I enter paradise
There is a light here given me by Him

Question: Will we have a tryst tomorrow or not?
Tell me, tell me quickly!

Answer: What kind of paradise would it be if there were no tryst?
What kind of question is this? Alas! A hundred times alas!

Wise are those who understand paradise
Who understand wisdom through the inner meaning of God’s signs

Behold the law of paradise, ‘tis universal mercy
No thorns exist there, there are but buds and flowers

Universal Beauty

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

My beloved is unparalleled in the world
There is no beauty other than his, for he is universal beauty

Behold! The sun and the moon set
But the sun of the world of beauty never sets

From paradise descended the perfection of his enchantment
So this perfection exists nowhere else in this world

In this world ‘tis difficult to meet the Sovereign of beauties
The morrow’s union promised in paradise is not possible today

Constant anguish has completely crushed me
By God’s grace that anguish is no more

There exists a treasury filled with answers of wisdom
Many are the answers, but there is no question

That king of the world’s beauties is behind the heart’s veil
How shall I part that veil? I have no such power

Not one of the people of the pen is a pauper in the world
Though bereft of wealth, they are princes of knowledge and letters

O Naṣīru’d-Din! Imagination is a lightning bird
‘Tis not a figment of the imagination, but a great gift of the Compassionate

Love for You!

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

To me your love is superior to intoxicating wine
The fragrance of the beloved’s lane is sweeter than the rose

Make my heart your abode, I will be your veil
Even so, how can I excel that other veil?

He alone is the treasure of generosity, he alone the mine of gifts
None more generous than him exists, he alone, the exalted

Beautiful thoughts of you are like a peaceful dream to me
Can there be a dream more beautiful than mine?

Your beauty and elegance are a divine book
No human book can compare with that book

The moon among the stars is a king
But the beloved in my heart surpasses the moon’s beauty

His question contained the treasure of wisdom
A question that the intellect declares excels any answer

Youth’s passing did not sadden me
For the reflection and intellect of old age is better than youth

By way of mercy, if he invites me to love and union
Such an invitation I will prefer to any other

How wonderfully sweet is the bitterness of love’s agony
This is the wine of love, superior to any other
Even your reproof is a manifestation so wonderful, so strange
For me, no other gift excels this reproof

He alone is the eternal light, the sun of the world of the heart
A sun thousands of times brighter than this sun

How wondrous is the heart’s bubble, ‘tis an ocean for God’s Throne
There exists no ocean superior to this fragile bubble-heart

Hearken, for my idol is the sovereign of all idols
Know that no other is better than my chosen one

If the orchard is destroyed, there can be no revenue
I am ruined by love a ruination better than any other

O Naṣīr! How heavenly is love’s punishment
This punishment I will prefer to any reward

The Proof of Spiritual Resurrection

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

It is mentioned in the blessed verse (20:15): “Surely the hour is coming (atiyah), but I will keep it hidden in order that every soul may be recompensed as it strove.”

Introduction: In this verse the word atiyah is a feminine present participle from the infinitive ityân.⁹⁰

God had spoken these words to Moses on Mount Sinai. This shows that the resurrection is a tremendous spiritual or hidden active power. If there is an agent or present participle without specifying the past, present or future, then according to me it comprises all three times, such as the resurrection. Whenever a sâlik dies spiritually prior to the physical death according to the exalted farmân “Die before you die”, the collective spiritual resurrection takes place simultaneously with this individual one. If this were impossible, the holy Prophet would not have said so, nor would he have said: “He who dies, his resurrection takes place”.⁹¹

Question: Did the resurrection of the one who dies according to the command of God and His Prophet not take place?
Answer: Indeed, however since Allah wills to keep it [resurrection] hidden, therefore every such resurrection will work spiritually and in a hidden way.

God willing, we would like to provide more such Qur’anic references [in the following parts].
Part 76
The Proof of Spiritual Resurrection
In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

The mighty Qur’ân abounds with wisdoms and allusions of the resurrection. However, we want to tell you a simple way [of identifying them], which is to understand the meaning of a Qur’ânic word “baghtatan”, which means all of a sudden, suddenly, surprisingly, unexpectedly, unawares.92

That is, when it is mentioned in the wise Qur’ân that the resurrection comes suddenly (baghtatan), it is a reference to the spiritual resurrection. The word baghtatan is mentioned 13 times in the Qur’ân. There are however, many more proofs of it in the wise Qur’ân.

Thus, for other than the sâlik, the spiritual resurrection takes place suddenly and unexpectedly and in a state of unawareness, because the invitation (da’wat) of the ʂür-i Isrâfîl is only to the souls. These many evidences are enough for the people of intellect.
Allah is the Light of Lights

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

Allah, may His name be glorified, is the light of the heavens and the earth, as well as the light of each and every human world, because it is the human being who is the Divine wonder in which the entire world is enfolded when the time comes. May God enable you to enter the paradise of the sacred Sanctuary in this life and see the miracle of Allah’s hand, how it enfoleds the entire universe! In Qur’anic terminology the enfolded universe is called matwiyyah (pl matwiyyāt, 39:67).

If someone observes the great secrets of the above-mentioned verse with the inner eye, he/she will come to know that Allah’s light, may His glory be glorified, is that endless circumferential ocean in which the world of humanity and each and every one of its subsidiary worlds, i.e., the individuals are always immersed. Reflect upon this again and again and reflect upon it in the company of friends! Is it not a final and decisive reality? Allah’s hand, which enfolds the inner aspect (ḥāfīn) of the universe, is the Imam of the time.
Part 78
Allah is the Light of Lights

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

Allah, may He be blessed and exalted, is the light of the heavens and the earth and in this sense He is the light of the world of humanity and each and every personal world. The concept of His holy light is like an infinite circumferential ocean in which the personal worlds are immersed, as mentioned in the preceding part.

The prayer of light of the holy Prophet mentions the kinds of bounties that God wills to grant every human being from this all-reaching and all-comprising light. The lamp verse indeed, is the centre of all verses of light and it alludes that there is glad tidings for the world of humanity in each and every verse related to light. For, the light is the Imāmu’n-nās or the Imam of the people and as such, he is the source of salvation for all people.⁹³

God has preserved everything under the Kursî or the supreme sphere in the enclosure of light. From one aspect, the Kursî is the holy light of the Imām-i mubīn and the light of the supreme circumference. The same is the light of Allah and the same light is mentioned in the verse of the Imām-i mubīn (36:12).
There is not a single injunction in the teachings of the wise Qur’an and the noble hadith, which does not directly or indirectly shed light on some aspect of service to people and the rights of the servants of God. A clear example of this is that, all the injunctions of religion are gathered in two supreme commands or universals, which leave out none of them, namely, the rights of God (huququ’llâh) and the rights of His servants (huququ’l-’ibâd). Further, not only the rights of the servants of God, but the very rights of God, are also ordained so that by fulfilling them, humankind may accrue innumerable benefits both in this world and the next, since God is free from and above any kind of benefit and profit.

It is said in a noble hadith: “People are God’s household, and the most beloved to God is the one who helps His household and makes them happy. And to walk with a Muslim brother in order to fulfil his need is dearer to God than the ītikāf (consecutive ībâdat) of two months in the holy Ka‘bah”.

The comprehensiveness of the above-mentioned hadith of the holy Prophet can by no means be duly praised and described. Nonetheless, according to the proverb “Musk is that which speaks of itself by its fragrance, not that which the perfumer describes” the way the Prophet, with his perfect, consummate, beautiful and majestic knowledge and wisdom, has given the example of the relation between the Almighty God and His humble creature, has dazzled the eyes of the particular intellect by its soul-nourishing and kind light and its radiance of knowledge and recognition. God is free from all attributes! Here the status and reverence of humankind appears at the extreme height and elevation. By God! We need to reflect repeatedly on this unique and bright teaching of the holy Prophet, so that we may properly understand the hidden secret that, behind the veil, God loves His creation. For those who are His household in this example, are at the level of being loved by God. However, those fortunate ones who serve others can progress farther in being loved by God and in His friendship.

The condition of service in this luminous teaching is that it should benefit others and make them happy. In this respect, the holy Prophet has alluded to great and far-reaching services concerning religion and the world. An example of a small service is when a Muslim goes with another Muslim brother to fulfil his need God raises it to a higher level of ‘ibādat and ī’tikāf, and loves it. From this you can truly estimate the importance and benefit of the sincere service of people.

The sweet fruit of good deed (iḥsān) is mentioned time and again in the glorious Qur’ān, and it is said: “And God loves those who do good deeds (5:93)”. And certainly service to people, as already mentioned, is the greatest good deed. Thus the service of people is that good deed, whose greatest, unprecedented and everlasting reward is the friendship and love of God. (continues)
In this vast and unbounded field of service of humankind, those who surpass and excel others are the Prophets and awliyā'. On the one hand, they are the chiefs of the community and on the other, their servants, as it is said in the Prophetic hadith: “Sayyidu'l-qawmi khādimuhum (The chief of the community is its servant)”. This clearly shows that it is only the Prophet and the perfect wali who can, in the real sense, serve the community universally, and then following their footsteps, other servants according to their status.

The following wisdom-filled universal principle is also mentioned in the Prophetic hadith: “Kullu ma'rūfín ṣadaqah (Every good deed is a charity)” Thus to serve one’s country, community and humanity is a good deed, and hence a great charity. If the benefit of a service continues forever, then God willing, it will be a perpetual charity, and such services can be called “al-bāqiyyatu's-sālihāt (ever-abiding good works, 18:46)”. Thus, it is evident that if the service is unpretentious and sincere, it is everything. Therefore, God loves every sincere and true servant and His friendship and love is the greatest bounty of religion and spirituality. In fact, it is the soul of all bounties.

Q: Who is most loved and chosen by God, the exalted?
A: The one who serves most His household, namely His creatures.

Q: Will a person who is loved most by God not be cured from all internal, spiritual and intellectual diseases?
A: Why not? Definitely, such a person will attain the sound heart (qalb-i salīm, 26:89). For, since God is the holy, He first purifies the one whom He wants to befriend and love from spiritual diseases and sins, and then He loves him.

God, the Lord of the worlds, grants all good manners and praiseworthy qualities to those sincere servants whose service He accepts, so that He may befriend and love them. These include goodness (7:196), beneficence (3:134), piety (3:76), patience (3:146), reliance on God (3:159), justice (5:42), purity (9:108), obedience and love (3:31), perfect faith and divine love (= ardent love, 2:165), zeal for external and internal jihād (61:4), love for the holy Prophet (3:31, 9:24), repentance and pure-heartedness (2:222) and many more qualities, with which the friends of God are adorned, as mentioned in a hadith: “When God loves a servant, then Jibrā'il is ordered to love him and he loves him, then all those who are in the heavens and the earth, love him”.

It is also mentioned in a noble hadith: “When God will raise a mu'min from his grave, he will come out in a state in which there will be a luminous figure (a subtle entity=mithālun hasan) with him. When the mu'min will pass through those difficulties, he will tell him: Do not be afraid! You will never be harmed. Thus, he will continue to set his mind at rest and give him glad tidings until he will bring him to God, the exalted. God will take from him an easy account and will command him to go to paradise. The mu'min will then ask him: Who are you? May God have mercy on you! You not only promised me, but also fulfilled it and turned my fear into peace. He will say: I am a creature, which my Lord created from the (collective) happiness, which you used to give to mu'mins (from your services and good deeds). So today I make you happy”.

In al-Kāfī regarding the “service of a mu'min”, there is a Prophetic hadith transmitted by Mawlānā ālī, which says: “A Muslim who serves a Muslim community, God will grant him as many servants in Paradise as he had served (in this world)”.

Efficacious medicines alone are not sufficient in connection with physical cure, but nourishment rich in vitamins is also essential. Similarly, in the book on Healing through Knowledge, we have to sincerely endeavour to provide some nutritious foods of knowledge and recognition in the light of the Qur’ân and the hadith, as well as logic and tradition and in the light of humble [spiritual] experiences and knowledge.

“And I have no success except by God.” (11:88).
Part 81
The Greatest Secret of Imām-i mubin

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

The universal of Imām-i mubin, which is full of wisdoms is mentioned in verse (36:12).

Introduction: How does God give life to the dead of every kind? How does He write their deeds and traces? And how does He keep all Divine and heavenly things in the Imām-i mubin by encompassing and counting them? The answers to these three difficult questions are in the recognition of the Imām-i mubin (may my soul be sacrificed for him).

Translation 1: Certainly (through the spiritual resurrection) We give life to the dead and record their deeds and traces and We have encompassed and counted all (Divine and heavenly) things in the Imām-i mubin (Allah’s khālifah).

Translation 2: Allah by considering Imām-i mubin, ṣalawātu ʾllāhi ʿalayhi, as His light of lights, has made him the living supreme Name, His khālifah and the khālifah of His Prophet.

There is no doubt that Divine and heavenly things are extremely great and amazing. For instance, think of the Divine Pen. Its name is Pen, but in reality it is the supreme light and the most honoured angel. It is well-known to the people of knowledge that God created the Pen and said: Write! The Pen said: What should I write, O Master! It was told: Write what has happened and what is going to happen.

The Pen had ism-i aʿzam and the word “Be”. Thus, everything was written automatically as it was willed. Therefore, you now need to think rationally and freely regarding the fact that Allah has encompassed and counted every Divine and heavenly thing in the Imām-i mubin in order that he, who is the Imāmu'n-nās, may deliver Allah’s household and make them enter paradise.
Part 82
The Greatest Secret of Imam-i mubin
In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

The concept that once, in the world of particles, all people were one community (2:213), and that once in the spiritual resurrection of Hazrat Adam, they were together with him until the final destination (inbi‘ath and ibdā‘), is extremely important. It appears extremely amazing to and beyond common understanding that all people were in the mīrāj of every Prophet spiritually and unconsciously. However, the wise Qur’ān clearly says that when Allah took the covenant of His providence, all the children of Adam were present spiritually (7:172). Similarly, the wise Qur’ān says that all people had spiritually embarked in the spiritual ark of Hazrat Noah, peace be upon him (36:41), and all divine and heavenly things are gathered together in the Imam-i mubin (36:12).

This means that Allah’s khalīfah, the Imam-u’n-nās is the fountainhead of His miracles. When you study the verse “Allah is the light of the heavens and the earth”, its concept is comparable to a pavilion of light that is higher than even the heavens or like an all-surrounding ocean. If Allah’s light is like a pavilion, which surrounds the heavens then all people live in the pavilion of His light, or if His light is like an all-surrounding ocean, then all people are immersed in the ocean of His light. In such a state, do the rays of His light not pour spiritually over the world of humanity? Since in the universal of the Imam-i mubin there is the concept of the enclosure of light in which all Divine and heavenly things are confined, then are not all human souls also included in it?

Two Archangels

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

It is extremely important to mention the two Archangels Ḥaḍrat Isrāfil and Ḥaḍrat ʿĪzrāʾil in this unique and paramount subject of the wise Qurʾān and the world of humanity. This is because subsequent to the luminous supreme Name, the Imam of the time and the verbal supreme Name [given by him], the spiritual resurrection that we mention again and again is linked to them. Thus, Ḥaḍrat ʿĪzrāʾil is mentioned in the wise Qurʾān in verse (32:11) as: “Say: The angel of death appointed over you causes you to die, then you shall be caused to return to your Lord.” Here the question is that there are other angels too, so why should the angel of death, Ḥaḍrat ʿĪzrāʾil, be appointed over a human being prior to his death? The answer is that there is certainly an allusion in this to “Die before you die”, in acting upon which there are countless benefits. This Archangel is also mentioned in verse (48:26) in the word kalimatu’t-taqwā (the word of piety). It is a ta’wīl veil in which the supreme Name of Ḥaḍrat ʿĪzrāʾil is hidden, by the continuous dhikr of which his work and that of his army begins. Ḥaḍrat Isrāfil is called Jadd in the * hudūd-i dīn* (72:3) as mentioned in Wajh-i Din.

*Mērē Mawlā nē mujhē logū sē qurbān kar diyā
Is ‘khalīlī’ kām sē dunyā kŪhayrān kar diyā*
My Mawlā sacrificed me on behalf of the people
By this Abrahamic feat he bewildered the world

Two Archangels

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

Majma‘a’l-bahrayn (the confluence of two rivers, 18:61) as well as maraja‘l-bahrayn (letting two rivers loose, 55:19-22) is possible at more than one place in God’s inner kingdom or the personal world. Thus, Ḥāḍrat Ḫisrāfīl and Ḥāḍrat ʻIzrā’īl are Allah’s two oceans from which pearls and corals come out (55:22) in every spiritual resurrection. That is, the sālik has to remain in voluntary or loving torture in the stage of Ḫisrāfīl and ʻIzrā’īl continuously for seven nights and eight days, so that on his behalf it may be a ransom of a great sacrifice (37:107) for the world of humanity.

Al-ḥamdū li’llaḥ! This humble darwīsh underwent the śūfic death and in it there was the luminous guidance and the ta‘yīd of the Imam of the time from the progeny of the holy Prophet. I was very deficient in education. I was extremely indigent and a pauper in knowledge and wisdom. I also suffered from different kinds of difficulties. I used to take help from supplication in the court of God, the purveyor of needs. One day my heart melted completely in the remembrance of God and I was complaining softly to God, when suddenly my ears started to ring and this continued until the voice of ṣūr-i Ḫisrāfīl started to rise gradually and became so loud that it felt as though the whole world was listening whereas it was only a spiritual voice audible to me. Indeed there also gathered a tremendous assembly of souls in the form of particles.
Part 85
Two Archangels

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

It is mentioned in verse (2:212): “And verily Allah provides sustenance [of paradise] to whomever He wills without reckoning.” This verse abounds in profound wisdom. That is, if God, the knowing, the wise, wills He causes a sālik to undergo the ṣūfic death and gives without reckoning the immeasurable sustenance of paradise to all the people, who are His household. Indeed, it is a Qur’ānic law that whoever revives a single human being it is as though he revives all human beings (5:32). Thus, if a sālik or ṣūfī wants to act according to the wisdom-filled command of the holy Prophet “Die before you die”, and revive himself in the real life, then it is possible only through the Imam of the time, Allah’s vicegerent, because it is not an easy task to die in this life and attain countless benefits without the help of the miracle of the supreme Name.

The supreme Names are two according to the law of majma‘ā’l-bahrayn or maraja‘l-bahrayn: One is the luminous supreme Name, the Imam of the time (may my soul be sacrificed for him) and the other is the verbal supreme Name, which is linked to the Imam, and which cannot help anyone who does not love him, obey him and seek his permission, as mentioned in the Qur’ān in verse (36:12) “And We have encompassed everything in the manifest Imam.” That is, all Divine and heavenly things are gathered together in the Imām-i mubin.
In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

It is mentioned in verse (27:66): “Nay, their knowledge has failed about the hereafter. Nay, they are in doubt about it. Still more they are blind to it.” There are many important wisdoms for the people of intellect in this wisdom-filled verse. According to me, knowledge of the hereafter is attainable and necessary. Thus, one should act according to the way of attaining the great treasure of the knowledge of the hereafter at the confluence of the two rivers of Isrāʾīl and ʿĪzrāʾīl, peace be upon them.

God willing, the people of intellect will understand the wisdoms of this verse. By God’s grace and munificence, Ḥazrat Isrāʾīl and Ḥazrat ʿĪzrāʾīl have opened the doors of recognition for the service of the world of humanity. It is true that Allah invites all people through the leadership of His vicegerent, the Imam from the progeny of Muhammad, peace be upon him (17:71). The ladder of the spiritual resurrection goes up to the sacred Sanctuary where all the great secrets of recognition are gathered together. The same is called the ċirfānī paradise. It has many functions and accordingly many names, that is, the more tasks it has the more names it has.
In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

Part 87
Diversity of Light

It is our firm belief, faith and certainty that the holy Prophet was the “embodied light”, because he was sent by God in the rank of light (5:15) and made a luminous lamp (33:46). If there was a lamp in the world which was living, speaking and wise, its hearing, seeing, insight and speech would also have been luminous. It would have been able to hear the light, see the light internally and externally and whenever it spoke it would have been luminous speech, because in its luminous and pure self there would have been nothing but light. This is an example within an example about the holy Prophet. It is evident that this is the meaning of calling him a luminous lamp (33:46) that he was definitely light from head to toe. Therefore, his external and internal senses were light and his wisdom-filled speech in the form of the Qur’an and the hadith was light. The same meaning is evident from the prayer of light (duʿāʿ-yi nūr) quoted below, which you should study carefully.

This most comprehensive prayer of the holy Prophet is mentioned in the collections of Ahādīth which, on the one hand, shows that he was embodied light from head to toe, and on the other, it shows that there is diversity in its manifestations. The prayer is: “O Allah! make for me a light in my heart, and a light in my ear, and a light in my eye, and a light in my tongue and a light in my hair, and a light in my skin, and a light in my flesh, and a light in my blood, and a light in my bones, and a light in my veins, and a light in front of me, and a light behind me, and a light on my right side, and a light on my left side, and a light above me and a light below me”.

This introductory explanation and the prayer of light show that God, in reality, has created light in the Perfect Man, and therefore it is absolutely correct to say that the true form of light is the Prophet and the wali. It is also necessary to note that according to the above-mentioned prayer, the Perfect Man becomes immersed in the ocean of light externally and internally and then his personality is used as a mould to create many angels who are in his image. This miraculous act takes place in the stages of Ḥaẓrat Isrā'īl and Ḥaẓrat ʻIzra'īl. Such angels are called the “Pictures of the bazaar of paradise” in a hadith.106

The diversity of the manifestations of light is in accordance with the external and internal senses of man. Thus, the light that is ordained for the ear is in diverse voices and the light that is ordained for the eye is in the observation of signs and miracles. Thus, a manifestation of light is ordained for every perception and conception. Extraordinary dhikr, astounding discourse of knowledge, amazing spiritual fragrances and all other such experiences are due to the manifestations of light. There are four worlds for such observations, experiences and knowledge related to the recognition of a sālik. They are: the world of wakefulness, the world of imagination, the world of dream and the world of spirituality, and in each of them there are countless wonders and marvels of the manifestations of light, because in such a state light is dominant all the time.

An ‘aziz may ask the question regarding the prayer of light: What is the nature of the work of light which is required for the hair, skin, flesh, blood, bones and veins? The complete answer to this question may be given in three parts: (a) Among the countless works of light one tremendously useful work is spiritual healing. Therefore when light comes to these parts of the body, every kind of disease disappears from them. (b) The vegetative soul and the animal soul are working in these parts, therefore these souls will be recognised in the illumination of light. (c) When the physical parts of the ʿārif become immersed in light, his luminous body becomes complete and separates from the physical body, as has been mentioned in this article.

The second question which may be asked is: How is it possible for the light to be in the front, back, right, left, above and below, and what are the benefits of this state of light? The answer to this question is in two ways. First, it is true that the light actually comes from six sides, namely, front (forehead and face), behind (back), right side (right ear), left side (left ear), above (upper part of head) and below (feet). The second is: front=future, behind=past, right=apparent, left=hidden, above=higher world and below=lower world. Each of these stations needs light, so that innumerable benefits of knowledge and wisdom may be attained.

The view of the Sufis is absolutely correct that it is necessary to die spiritually before the physical death and without this there is no way to recognition. It is only after the spiritual death that the ʿālik becomes truly revived, as mentioned in verse (6:122): “Is he who was dead, then We revived him and made for him a light by which he walks among the people, like him whose similitude is (that he is) in utter darkness whence he cannot come out?” Here an important question arises: How does the one whom God has revived in the light of recognition walk among the people? Is this walking like the walking of other people? Does he walk within (bātin of) the people? The answer is that such an ʿārif walks among the souls of the people in his personal world, where there is the recognition of everything. And this is an extremely praiseworthy achievement.
Part 88
The Sacred Sanctuary and Human Beings

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

Introduction: Among the hidden (bā'īn) names of the sacred Sanctuary, one is heaven and another is throne (‘arsh) upon which Allah accomplishes His musāwāt-i Raḥmāni (The equality of the Compassionate).

All my ‘azizān of knowledge who serve and spread it ask the following question: Would you kindly tell us a great secret concerning the confluence of the wise Qur’ān and the light of Imamat, which we will never forget?

Answer: Although I have disclosed this greatest secret in the light of the Qur’ān, now I will try to do so in the light of the holy farān of the Imam.

In the light of the ta’wil of verse (11:7), after the creation and completion of the world of religion and the personal world, the Divine throne appeared on the ocean of knowledge and then miraculously the confluence of the Divine throne and Noah’s ark took place. That is, according to verse (11:7), it was the throne on the water and according to verse (36:41) the same was also the ark of salvation on it (water). On this ark there was the Imam from the Prophet’s progeny, Shāh Karim al-Ḥusayni and in his blessed personality were gathered together all the particles of souls. This is the meaning of sitting on the throne and embarking on the laden ark in the sense of fanā’ fi’llāh (merging in God) and baqā’ bi’llāh (survival by God).
With regard to the farmān, Imam Sulṭān Muḥammad Shāh says: “You must reach the supreme throne. In order to reach there, it is a pre-requisite to be pure. If your heart is pure you will be able to see the supreme throne in this world. It is not very far.” 108
The Sacred Sanctuary and Human Beings

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

It is mentioned in verse (71:21): “And We delivered him (Abraham) and Lot [and brought them] to the land which We have blessed for [all] people.” The sacred Sanctuary is mentioned in this blessed and wisdom-filled verse.

Ta’wil: There is no land in this world that is blessed for all people, i.e. all personal worlds. Certainly, such a land blessed by Allah is the sacred Sanctuary only, in which there are all kinds of blessings for each and every personal world on behalf of God.

One of the wisdom-filled names of the sacred Sanctuary in the Qur’an is ‘land’ (arz, 21:71) and another is the land of the easts and wests (7:137). In short, I would like to tell you that the great miracles of the sacred Sanctuary work for the world of humanity.

At least seventy thousand living worlds are created for the world of humanity at the confluence of Ḥaẓrat Isra’īl and Ḥaẓrat ‘Izrā’īl. All the verses of subjugation and all the verses about bounties in the Qur’an are for the sake of God’s household. [Particularly] when the Omnipotent God and His beloved Prophet declare: “The people are Allah’s household”, then it becomes the supreme law of the world of jabarūt (Divine attributes) and the guarantee of the world of lāhūt (Divinity).
Part 90
The Sacred Sanctuary and Human Beings

_In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful_

It is mentioned in the blessed verse (21:32): “And We have made the heaven a roof, well-guarded.”

_Ta’wil:_ Allah made the heaven, i.e. the sacred Sanctuary a roof and a throne, because the word throne also means roof. The word well-guarded (_maḥfūz_) alludes that there is the confluence of the Pen and the Guarded Tablet, as well as that of the throne and the _kursi_ in the sacred Sanctuary. If there had not been pairs of all higher things, you would be surprised at the literal meaning of the word Sanctuary or _hāzirah_. Thus, in the sacred Sanctuary the miracle of _azal_ and _abad_ is at the same place, as is the confluence of _ibdā‘_ and _inbi‘āth_, and also non-space is within space. Here the _maẓhar_ of the light of God, the Imam of the time, enfolds the inner (spiritual) universe time and again, in which there are endless benefits for the people.

The easy purport of _majma‘a‘l-bahrāyn_ (18:60) and _maraja‘l-bahrāyn_ (55:19) is [also] confluence, without which there cannot be any wisdom. Thus, there is the confluence of the Universal Soul = the _Imām-i mubīn_ and individual souls in the sacred Sanctuary. This is the secret that is most useful for the world of humanity. It is the _fanā‘ fi‘l-imām_ that is the _ta‘wil_ of _fanā‘ fi‘l-lāh_.

Part 91
The Sacred Sanctuary and Human Beings

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

It is mentioned in verse (31:2): “Did you not see (i.e. the ārifs in the sacred Sanctuary with the inner eye) that Allah has subjugated to you whatsoever is in the heavens and whatsoever is in the earth, and has completed His favours, both apparent and hidden for you.”

Introduction: Due to the use of [the phrase] “Did you not see” the special address of this extremely blessed and wisdom-filled verse is exceedingly subtle and profound. It appears that this wisdom-filled verse has to be reflected upon from the perspective of the sacred Sanctuary, because the subjugatory miracles that Allah’s vicegerent, the Imam-i mubin, makes for the people by God’s command, can [only] be observed and recognised with certainty at this place. The miracle of the effectiveness of what has been said about the Imam-i mubin in verse (36:12) can be observed at this place, the sacred Sanctuary.
Part 92
The Sacred Sanctuary and Human Beings

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

It is mentioned in verse (41:53): “Soon We will show Our signs to them in the horizons [of the world] and within themselves until it becomes manifest to them that He is the truth.”

Introduction: From one aspect all the people of the world together are like a Single Soul (31:28), as soul in reality is only one. And it is this Single Soul, which is called the world of humanity and God’s household.

Thus, to a great extent, according to His exalted promise God did show His household (the world of humanity) not only the miracles of material science, but also the miracles of spiritual and inner resurrection in every time through the Imam of the time (17:71), His vicegerent, since all people are like a Single Soul and their soul is only one.

Thus, climbing the ladder of every spiritual resurrection all souls are merged in the Imám-i mubín, in the sacred Sanctuary. However, their external shadow returns to this world and this is the law.
Part 93
The Sacred Sanctuary and Human Beings

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

It is mentioned in verses (51:20-22): “And there are signs in the earth for those who have certainty and within yourselves (while a human being is the world in which there is everything). Will you then not see? And in the heaven (i.e. the sacred Sanctuary) is your sustenance [of knowledge] and whatever has been promised you (i.e. paradise).” This is addressed to the world of humanity. The question is asked to draw attention towards [the importance of] ma‘rifat.

When the signs of the earth are conditional on having certainty, then it is on three levels: ‘ilmu’l-yaqīn (knowledge of certainty), ‘aynu’l-yaqīn (eye of certainty) and haqqu’l-yaqīn (truth of certainty). Those who have haqqu’l-yaqīn are ‘āris. It is alluded here that there are always ‘āris (recognisers) as well as the ma‘rif (the recognised one) in this world. That is, the mazhar of Allah’s light, the Imam of the time.

In the above verse, by the heaven is meant the sacred Sanctuary, which is the paradise of knowledge and recognition, in which there are only ta’wīl miracles, the confluence of the hidden Book and the Pearl of Intellect and [other] great astonishing secrets.
Part 94
The Sacred Sanctuary and Human Beings

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

Study the sūrah of Tīn (95) carefully. In its beginning, God has sworn by four things: the fig, the olive, mount Sinai and the secured city. Their ta'wil is: the Universal Intellect, the Universal Soul, the nāfīq and the asās. The complement of swearing is that God has created human beings (the world of humanity) in the best taqwām. Allah’s taqwām means the minor and major cycles and aeons, such as the cycle of fifty thousand years mentioned in verse (70:1-7), in which human beings will have the amenities and bounties of paradise, progress in knowledge and then by Allah’s command they will transform into angels. If God wills, this progress can happen in a shorter time too. Every bounty of paradise is according to one’s desire.

For the meanings of taqwām, see Waḥīdu’z-Zamān Qasimi’s al-Qāmūsu’l-Wāḥid and Hans Wehr’s Arabic-English Dictionary and for the ta’wil of the four things mentioned above, see Wajh-i Din, Discourse 11.
Part 95
The Sacred Sanctuary and Human Beings

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

It is mentioned in verse (36:68): “And whosoever We grant long life, We reverse him in creation. Do they not understand?”

Ta’wil purport: Those whom God wills to give long lives in the sublime paradise, He makes them aware of the secret of revival, coming upside down from the world of command to the world of creation, and the wisdom of the birth of a child upside down from its mother’s womb.

Question: Why is the human baby born head first?
Answer: It is the law of nature and there is wisdom in it. Its wisdom alludes to a circle, which is the symbol of beginninglessness and endlessness and there is nothing in this world that does not allude to a circle. Thus, everything testifies that God’s kingdom is eternal. It has neither a beginning nor an end. In the sacred Sanctuary too, everything moves on the everlasting circle, and in it the confluence of the word of command and the word of possibility are two greatest miracles. All this is for the sake of the world of humanity through Allah’s vicegerent, the Imam of humankind. Every wise person knows that each [piece of] work is going to end exactly according to God’s will of azal, and all people, His household, are going to gather in paradise and thank Him.
In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

Today, on the 1\textsuperscript{st} of May 1997, we have done munājāt in a new place by the grace of God. Therefore, (God willing) we will try to ensure that there are new things in the gifts for friends. You know that there are 8 paradises, 8 as 4 pairs, 4 as 2 pairs, and 2 as 1 pair. In the language of the Qur’ān, zawjān means two individuals, such as a husband and wife. If two individuals enter the world of unity they become one due to the law of unity. This means that paradise is both spread out as well as centred and gathered together.

Paradise is spread throughout the length and breadth of the universe (3:133, 57:21) and also becomes confined in the personal world of an ārif by the command of God. After some time, it becomes particularly centred in his/her forehead. In this sense, the forehead is like the throne where the intellectual paradise and all its blessings are present. In the wise Qur’ān, the word jabān is used for the forehead, and it is specifically mentioned in verse (37:103). Thus, the rank of jabān (forehead) is the highest within the personal world, which is the centre of the light of the Imam of the time. Indeed, it is a great secret that in the blessed forehead of the Perfect Man, light speaks automatically. Praise belongs to Allah, the Lord of the [personal] worlds!

1. Within jabān there is the enfolded paradise.
2. This is the sublime throne of the personal world.
3. This is the sacred Sanctuary.
4. This is the example of mi‘rāj.
5. The entire narration of the Mount of Ṭūr is that of the jabān.
6. Only on reaching the jabin can one observe azal and spacelessness.
7. The hidden treasure is concealed within the jabin.
8. Jabin is the heaven of the personal world as well as the higher world.
9. Thus it is very important and necessary for all mu’mins and mu’minahs to repeatedly do giryah-u zāri in the Divine court and to do abundant prostrations of the jabin in heavenly love.
Part 97
Soul is only One

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

The hujjat of the qa’im said: “You are my spiritual children and remember that soul is one.”\textsuperscript{111} That is, soul in reality is one and this is what the wise Qur’ân says. The Single Soul is one and many, therefore it is Adam as well as the off-spring of Adam. The Single Soul is Allah’s greatest miracle. It is extremely amazing. It is a miracle of miracles and a manifestation within manifestations.\textsuperscript{112}

“The souls were/are/will be [in the form of] assembled armies”.\textsuperscript{113} That is, their characteristic is to gather like a highly organised army. If your spiritual resurrection takes place, all souls will gather in your personal world for the sake of the subjugation of the world and the subjugation of the universe. This happens in every spiritual resurrection. Since the soul is from the world of command, therefore, among souls there is an \textit{ibdâ’}i unity. Since the soul is only one, there is the possibility of the manifestation of all people in it, or there is the \textit{ibdâ’}i unity of all of them. The special unity of all souls is due to the \textit{Imâm-i mubîn}, because the light of the Imam is linked with every human soul.\textsuperscript{114}
Treasured knowledge ("ilm-i makhzûn) means that knowledge, which is kept as a treasure behind the veil of a parable, such as in verse (89:22): “And your Lord comes, and angels row upon row.”

Ta’wil: This is the mention of the spiritual resurrection. That is, the vicegerent of God, the Imam of the time, manifests himself together with the angels. Since God, as such, is free from and above coming and going, therefore He has appointed His vicegerent forever among the people physically and spiritually, so that people may obtain heavenly blessings and grace(s) through him. Thus, the spiritual resurrection is true and the khilafat (vicegerency) and Imamat that has continued from the time of Adam is also true.

Treasured knowledge can be discovered in many places of the wise Qur’ân, such as in verse (2:210) that Allah and the angels come in the canopies of clouds. Ta’wil: By the command of God, Hazrat qâ’im ‘l-qiyâmat will come to the world of religion unexpectedly and hiddenly. This is a great trial, therefore with the exception of the five hudûd mentioned below, nobody will be able to know him. See Wajh-i Din, Discourse 33.

The purport of the Prophetic Tradition: Nobody will be able to recognise the qâ’im except through the five hudûd, such as asâs, imâm, bâb, hujjat and da’i.”

Treasured (makhzūn) Knowledge

In the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

It is necessary to examine verses (7:52-53) with the inner eye, because there are many subtle wisdoms in them. The key wisdom of verse (7:52) is that the tafsīl, i.e. explanation of the Qur’ān is possible only through the science of ta’wil.

The ta’wilī purport of verse (7:53) is that the ta’wil of the holy Qur’ān has continued to or will come in the form of the spiritual resurrection. For those who die by the sūfīc death and are revived, the ta’wil of the Qur’ān has come in the form of their spiritual resurrection. How fortunate! How fortunate!
